CIRCLE HONORS MEMBERS
Mrs. Noah Felton entertained members of the Senior Circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and a few friends at her home Monday afternoon, August 16, honoring three of the members whose birthdays were in August. A very inspirational program was given. Those taking part were Mrs. Noah Felton, Mrs. G. E. Fields, Mrs. Wilson Reed, Mrs. C. O. Fowler and Mrs. E. R. Meekins, wife of the pastor on Center Hill charge. She brought a beautiful message. After the business was attended to the group was invited in the dining room. The table was covered with a lovely lace cloth, in the center of the table was a beautiful bowl of purple asters, and at the end of the table was a lovely birthday cake with the names of the three members whose birthdays were in August. Baskets of nuts were at each place around the table. Mrs. Bessie Brinn cut and served the cake and delicious home-made ice cream. Those present were Mesdames Noah Felton, hostess, E. L. Reed, Wilson Reed, T. B. Walters, R. T. White, G. E. Fields, G. E. Newby, John Lane, C. O. Fowler, Bessie Brinn, E. R. Meekins, Evans, D. F. Reed and C. T. Skinner.

CARD OF THANKS
I would like to say thanks to everyone in Hertford for their loyal support and making my stay in Hertford a success. I hope Colonial Stores, I'm sure, as well as I would say thanks a million. I must say the grandest people on earth are in Perquimans County and Hertford. I will visit here whenever possible from now on. Buy your groceries from Penders and save, always. They honor their customers with the best. And again thanks for everything. L. J. (Rat) DAVIS.
