

Webb-Cook Wedding Solemnized Sept. 5th

Mabel Louise Cook, baby sister, wearing a white dotted Swiss dress and pink carnation hat, carried the ring on a pink satin pillow.

Attending the bridegroom as best man was Jack Symons of Chapanoke and groomsmen were G. H. Webb, brother of the bridegroom of Elizabeth City and Joel Hollowell, Jr., of Winfall.

Mrs. Pat Hoggard, mistress of ceremony, wore a lace trimmed black sheer dress with black accessories and a corsage of yellow roses at the waist.

The bride's mother wore a dress of purple crepe with black accessories and a corsage of lilies. The mother of the bridegroom wore a powder blue crepe dress and her flowers were Talisman roses.

Immediately after the ceremony the wedding guests were received by the bride and groom and their attendants as they entered the house for the reception. Mrs. W. A. Hoggard directed the guests to the gift room, where Mrs. G. H. Webb of Elizabeth City and Mrs. D. J. White, Jr., of Tampa, Florida, presided. Mrs. Carroll Byrum of Edenton invited the guests to register in the bride's book. Mrs. Pallen Lane of Hertford received in the dining room which was decorated with bowls of white gladioli and asters with fern and huckleberry. The entire scene was lighted by tapers in silver candelabra. The table was centered with the punch bowl, presided over by Mrs. Mary Bray and on either end were crystal stands containing bridal mints and individual bridal cakes in green and white. The guests were served by Mrs. Gaston Banks and Mrs. B. T. Bray, assisted by Misses Ann Bray and Sally White. Mrs. Ben Whiteley presided on the south veranda, where tables and chairs were placed. Mrs. A. R. Cook said goodbyes.

For going away the bride changed to a black and white ensemble with black accessories. She wore a corsage of roses lifted from her bridal bouquet. After a short trip, Mr. and Mrs. Webb will be at home in Hertford.

Prior to the wedding date the bride was entertained at several parties including a miscellaneous shower given August 27th by Miss Ethel Frances Elliott and Miss Mary Sue Cook at Miss Elliott's home in Hertford.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Bray of Hertford Route 3 entertained at a dinner party for the bridal party on Tuesday evening, August 31st. The bride was presented a piece of silver in her chosen pattern.

On Thursday evening Mrs. Hilton White was hostess for a miscellaneous shower for the bride at the bride's home.

Following the rehearsal on Friday night Mrs. Lester Jordan entertained for her sister at a cake cutting at home. The dining room was decorated with garden flowers and lighted with burning white tapers in silver candelabra. The table, covered with a lace cover, displayed a three-tiered wedding cake. After being first cut by the bride, the cake was served by Mrs. W. S. Hoggard. Assisting in serving an ice course were Mrs. Wendell Matthews and Mrs. J. S. Bray.

Besides the wedding party, those present included the Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Singletary, Mr. and Mrs. G. H.

Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Small, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Byrum, Mrs. D. J. White, Jr., Mrs. Mary Bray, Mrs. B. F. Bray, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Bray, Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Hoggard, Mr. Paul Smith, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Cook, Mrs. Wendell Matthews and the hostess, Mrs. Lester Jordan.

BAKER-RIDDICK VOWS SOLEMNIZED IN GATESVILLE

In quiet but impressive ceremony which was solemnized in the Gatesville Baptist parsonage Wednesday night, September 8, at 7:30 o'clock, Miss Mary Lorene Riddick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Riddick, of Belvidere became the bride of Lester Julian Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Baker of Belvidere, with the Rev. T. Sloane Guy officiating, using the double ring ceremony.

The bride was attired in a gray suit with green accessories and a shoulder corsage of red roses.

The maid of honor was Miss Irma Hudgins of Suffolk, Va., who was attired in a blue crepe dress with black accessories.

The best man was Clarence Winslow of Belvidere. The only other attendant was Clifford Winslow, also of Belvidere.

Mrs. Baker is a graduate of Hobbsville High School.

Mr. Baker is a graduate of Perquimans High School and a prominent farmer of Perquimans County.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Baker left for a wedding trip to historical points in Virginia.

Tuesday In Durham

Mrs. T. P. Brinn and Mrs. J. T. Brinn spent Tuesday in Durham. They were accompanied home by Mrs.

T. P. Brinn's mother, Mrs. W. H. Glasson.
