

Merchandise Taken In Store Robbery

Merchandise valued at approximately $118 was stolen Monday night from a store operated by L. E. Pierce, on Highway 17 about four miles north of Hertford, it was reported Tuesday by Sheriff M. G. Owens, who is investigating the robbery.

According to Sheriff Owens, some person or persons broke into the store on Monday night and made away with a large list of groceries and other items, including a radio.

The Sheriff stated that entry was gained into the store by breaking down a door at the rear of the building.
