J. Kelly White was born in Parkville Township, 44 years ago, the son of J. N. and Mary Overman White. He stayed on the farm until he had completed his schooling. He then began what has been his life's work, the automobile business, which was interrupted in January, 1943, when he entered the U. S. Armed Forces. He served as a Staff Sergeant with the Third Army, under the famous late General Patton, in five major campaigns in the European Theater of Operations. These campaigns, in which he served as a foreman of a tank repair unit, were Normandy, Northern France, Rhineland, Ardennes and Central Europe. He was awarded the EAMET campaign medal with five bronze service stars, good conduct medal and bronze star medal.

Following his separation from the Armed Forces, he returned to Hertford and resumed his work here in the automotive business.

In all of his years, J. Kelly White has proven himself efficient and capable with the job at hand. He is a friendly, courteous man, unselfish in spirit and genuinely interested in his home county and his fellowman.
