

Jean Layden Weds
Edgar Young Berry, Jr.

In an informal ceremony on Saturday morning, October 7, at 11 o'clock, Miss Sarah Jean Layden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Layden of Hertford, became the bride of Edgar Young Berry, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Young Berry, Sr., of Hertford. The vows were spoken in Mt. Hermon Methodist Church in the presence of the immediate families with the Rev. Z. V. Cowan officiating, using the double ring ceremony.

The bride was attired in a walty blue crepe dress fashioned with a fitted bodice, long sleeves, off-shouldered neckline and full skirt with gray accessories. She carried a white prayer book topped with white orchids adorned with stephanotis and satin streamers.

Mrs. Franklin Williams of Elizabeth City was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a navy blue suit with navy accessories and a purple orchid corsage. The bridegroom had as his best man his brother, Dan Berry. The bride's mother wore a navy blue suit with navy accessories and a purple orchid. The bridegroom's mother wore a beige suit with brown accessories and a purple orchid.

Mrs. Berry is a graduate of Perquimans County High School and is now employed with the Value Store in Elizabeth City. Mr. Berry is a graduate of Perquimans County High School. During World War II he served 20 months with the U. S. Army, 14 months overseas. At present he is employed at McPherson Bros. Auto Supply in Elizabeth City.
