

Miss Edna E. Hurdle Weds A. E. Puckey

The marriage of Miss Edna Earl Hurdle, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Hurdle and S/Sgt. Alfred Edward Puckey, U. S. M. C. son of Mr. and Mrs. John Andrew Puckey of Pittsburgh, Pa., took place Sunday afternoon at 4 P. M., October 8th, in the Hertford Methodist Church, with the Rev. Ben O. Merritt officiating at a double ring ceremony.

The ceremony was performed before a background of white mums, Stock and snapdragons, with fern and palms.

Prior to the ceremony, Miss Kate Blanchard, organist, presented a program of nuptial music. Miss Ruth Tucker was soloist and her selections were "Ava Maria," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by H. N. Nixon, the bride wore an ankle length dress of angel blue satin with a lace top and a finishing net neck line, with matching blue accessories and a finger tip veil. She carried a prayer book with a white orchid.

The maid of honor was Miss Sybil Skinner who wore a dress of toast lace over pink satin. Her accessories were dark brown, she carried a nosegay of mixed flowers.

The groom had as his best man, Sgt. Quentin Krause, U. S. M. C. The ushers were Earlie Goodwin and Julian Broughton. The bride's mother wore a toast crepe dress with lace top and lace sleeves, with black accessories and she wore a corsage of red carnations.

The mistresses of ceremonies were Mrs. B. G. Koonce and Mrs. Tom Perry.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Quentin Krause.

After a short wedding trip the couple will make their home at Beaufort.

Hertford Bears Beat Ahsokie 12-0

The Hertford Bears, sparked by F. Sutton and C. Felton, defeated the Ahsokie grid team 12-0 in a game played here last Friday afternoon. The Bears scored once in the first and third quarters, but failed to convert tries for extra points. In the third period, Felton took a punt from Ahsokie and raced 71 yards for the final Hertford score.

The Bears will play Edenton here on Friday of this week, and will be trying for a victory to edge Edenton, which tied the Bears 18-18 in a previous game at Edenton.

In St. Paul's Mrs. C. H. Howard is spending this week with relatives and friends at St. Paul's.
