

Jenkins-Godwin Vows Spoken At Winfall Aug. 22

In a candlelight ceremony, August 22, in the Epworth Methodist Church in Winfall, Miss Norma Jean Godwin and Joseph Glenwood Jenkins were united in marriage by the Rev. Herbert Jamison.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie M. Godwin of Hertford, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Edna C. Jenkins of Jacksonville. A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Durwood Barbary, organist, and Mrs. Max Griffin, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over satin, fashioned with an scalloped oval neckline. Long lace sleeves ended in wedding points over the hands. The basque bodice buttoned down back with self covered buttons, extended into an apron effect of lace that enhanced the bouffant skirt of tulle. Her fingertip veil of illusion was arranged from a seed pearl tiara. She carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid.

Miss Sue Cooke of Hertford was maid of honor. She wore a ballerina length gown of dusty rose organza over taffeta and carried a bouquet of mixed flowers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Betty Gwyn Watson of New Bern, Miss Rebecca Flemmons of Raleigh, Miss Marceline Aycock of Black Creek and Miss Catherine Goodwin of Hertford. They were dressed in ballerina length gowns of turquoise organza over taffeta with matching headresses. They carried bouquets of mixed flowers.

Best man for the bridegroom was his cousin, Capt. Cecil Daniels, USA, of Miami, Fla. Ushers were Ensign Ed Daniels, USCG, also of Miami and Clinton Winslow of Belvidere.

The bride's mother wore a dress of navy blue net over taffeta, with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of dusty rose nylon lace over taffeta with black accessories and an orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip to the Western part of the state.

For traveling the bride wore a blue linen suit with white accessories and the orchid lifted from her prayerbook. The bride is a senior at East Carolina College and the bridegroom was graduated from there in 1962 with a major in business education. At present he is on the teaching staff of Pinehurst High School.

The couple are making their home in Pinehurst.

HEAVY SLAUGHTER IN STATE

Commercial slaughter of cattle, calves, sheep and lambs, and hogs in North Carolina during July totaled 20,846,000 pounds liveweight — the highest of record for any July since records began in 1947, according to the N. C. Crop Reporting Service. Slaughter during the month, however, was only slightly above the 20,791,000 pounds liveweight killed during the previous month but was 2 per cent above the 20,385,000 pounds killed during July of last year.

Cattle slaughter in the State during the month reached 9,861,000 pounds which was about 5 per cent above July, 1963, and also the highest of record for the month. Meanwhile calf slaughter reached 1,107,000 pounds, the heaviest July kill since 1948.

For hogs, the total slaughter during July amounted to 10,060,000 pounds liveweight—about 2 per cent less than that of July, 1963, and the lowest for the month since 1951.
