

Demonstration On Flowers Scheduled

A special interest meeting on "Dried Flower Arrangements" was announced today by Miss Kinsey Perry, Home Demonstration Agent in Perquimans County. This meeting will be held on Wednesday, June 1, at 2:30 in the auditorium of the Agricultural Building in Hertford and will be conducted by Miss Pauline Gordon, Extension Specialist in housing and house furnishings from N. C. State College.

"This meeting will cover anything that you would like to know about dried arrangements, including the process of drying, arranging and caring for dried arrangements," states Miss Perry. According to the announcement this meeting is not closed to Home Demonstration Club members alone but is open to anyone interested in dried flower arrangements.

ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. J. L. Harris entertained her bridge club Thursday night at her home on Grubb Street. Those playing were Mesdames Eldon Winslow, Francis Nixon, Al Kenton, Charlie Murray, J. W. Dillon, Henry Stokes, Jarvis Ward, Misses Helene Nixon, Dorcas Knowles, Frances Newby and Ruth Tucker. The high score prize went to Miss Knowles and the floating prize was awarded Mrs. Kenton. A sweet course was served.

TRAINING MEETING

Mrs. Jesse Lee Harris, president, delightfully entertained the officers of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church at a chicken salad supper on Monday night, May 23 at 7 o'clock. Afterwards she held an officers' training class in which all officers became acquainted with their duties for the new year 1955-56.

Those attending were Vice President Mrs. Elton Hurdle, Recording Secretary Mrs. John Coston, Treasurer Mrs. Frank McGoogan, Local Treasurer Mrs. D. F. Reed, Promotion Secretary Mrs. Robert Hollowell, Secretary of Literature and Publications Miss Thelma Elliott, Secretary of Missionary Education and Education Mrs. Oscar Felton, Secretary of Status of Women Miss Kate Blanchard, Secretary of Supplies Mrs. Edgar Fields, Secretary of Student Work Mrs. Edgar Lane, and Mrs. Anse White, chairman of Minnie Wilson Circle; Mrs. Charles Payne, chairman of Mary Towe Circle; Mrs. Archie T. Lane, acting chairman of Wesleyan Service Guild.

The Circle of the Month is the Della Shamburger Circle, having 38 per cent in attendance at the May meeting.

LIBRARY NEWS

The Perquimans County Library has three new books for adults this week. Heading the list is Robert Ruark's controversial new book, "Something of Value," chosen by the Book-of-the-Month-Club as its May selection. It has received both praise and adverse criticism for its portrayal of the horrors of present day Africa under the Mau Mau terror.

Other new books are new editions of Christopher Morley's classics, "The Haunted Bookshop" and "Pannassus On Wheels."

For young people the library has several new career books and light romances.

HONORED AT SHOWER

Miss Mary Winslow was honored on May 12 by a surprise miscellaneous shower given by Miss Myrtle Williams. The shower was given in the parlor of Cotten Hall Dormitory. The guest numbered 40 and also present were Mrs. Hazel Clark, freshman girl advisor; Mrs. Helen Snyder, the dormitory house mother; Mrs. Cecil Winslow and Mrs. Claude Williams of Hertford. Gifts were opened and acknowledged and refreshments consisting of punch, cookies, salted nuts and mints were served.

Must Be Voice—"How do you feel this morning?"
Second Voice—"Fine."
Voice—"I guess I have the wrong number."

WCS Meet Held In Winfall Church

The Perquimans-Chowan Sub-District had its annual spring meeting in the Winfall Methodist Church Thursday, May 12, with Mrs. J. L. Harris, Sub-District chairman, presiding. After the opening prayer by Mrs. Harris, a very inspirational meditation was given by the Rev. P. M. Porter, pastor of the Chowan Charge.

A very hearty welcome was extended to those present by Mrs. J. Van Bouch with Mrs. Harris responding. Mrs. G. P. Quincy of the Oak Grove Society was named chairman of the courtesy committee.

In memory of the deceased, Mrs. Harris asked everyone to pause while their names were called and the hymn, "O Love That Would Not Let Me Go" was sung. Five baby and four adult life memberships were presented. The minutes of the Fall meeting were read and approved and the roll was called, with the president of each society giving her yearly report when her society was called. New officers for the coming year were recognized.

During the business session it was voted to continue the Margaret Evans White Fund, with each member sending the treasurer contributions by November 1.

Special music was rendered by Miss Ruth Tucker, accompanied by Mrs. Ray Harris.

During the afternoon session Mrs. Quincy made the courtesy report and an invitation was extended by Mrs. Elmer Wood of the Woodland Society for the sub-district to meet there in the Fall.

Mrs. Harris then turned the meeting over to Mrs. Lois Brown, District Promotion Secretary. She recognized the District and Conference Secretaries present, Mrs. Eddie Harrell, District Supply Secretary, Mrs. W. E. Brown, District Secretary of Missionary Education, Mrs. George Jackson, Conference Secretary of Supply, and Mrs. Earl Richardson, District Secretary of Christian Social Relations and Local Church Activities. She also brought out in her talk if each member would make a mark for extra work to carry on the program of the Woman's Society of Christian Service it would spell the words "Jesus Loves."

Mrs. Edith Mixon, District President, led the closing meditation. During her talk she urged the women to carry out the theme of the year, "That the Kingdom of God May Be Realized" and be better stewards. The meeting was closed with the hymn "Are Ye Able?" and prayer by Mrs. Mixon.

VFW DANCE SATURDAY
The VFW Post will sponsor a dance at the club room Saturday, May 28, beginning at 9 P. M. The public is invited to attend.
