Every Day Low Prices Are Cited at Colonial

Colonial Stores, citing as examples the many fresh, high quality dairy products at Colonial Stores, through modern methods of processing and refrigeration, a wide variety of dairy foods—milk, butter, cheese and other dairy products—are available at Colonial Stores everyday low prices.

It was expected that customers would take good advantage of this wide choice of quality dairy foods during the last week of National Dairy Month.

As a check on food prices throughout the state, Colonial Stores used the "comparison shoppers" method regularly to insure its customers the highest quality products, meats and produce at the lowest possible prices.

An evidence of the low prices in all Colonial Stores, company officials pointed out that Colonial makes only a little more than one penny of profit on each dollar in sales.
