LIBRARY NEWS

New books in the Perquimans County Library this week are as follows: "The Story of the Declaration of Independence" is a large, well illustrated volume giving details and facts concerning the signers as well as the document; "Russia" is the first concise and up-to-date history of Russia the library has and should be of interest to thoughtful readers; "Midpoint," by Isabella Holt is a novel of midwestern townspeople of the early thirties; "The Long Ride Home," while it is a football story should be read by adults as well as young people as it shows the far reaching results of high school football at the state championship level upon the whole town as well as upon the players and coach; "Live Till Tomorrow" is a Dr-nurse story with a new angle.

Several new books for young people have come into the library this week: "Showboat Summer" by DuJardin and three new career romances are for teen-agers and a new Haywood book about Eddie for the younger readers.

4-H CLUB NEWS

The 7th grade and 4-H Club met together on November 9 at the Perquimans County Grammar School in the auditorium.

The meeting was turned over to the program chairman, A play entitled "The UN and the Appleton Family" was given. Those taking part were: Mother, Carroll McDonnell; Father, Elton Baccus; Bill, Roland Trip; Jack, Douglas Winslow; Susan, Jean Copeland, and Debbie, Diane, Chappell. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. There being no further business, the boys and girls divided into separate groups for their demonstrations, given by the agents. "Your Bedroom" was the demonstration given for the girls and "Field Crops" was given for the boys. Pamphlets were passed out concerning bedrooms, better grooming and good health.

WCS MEETS

The executive committee of the Anderson Women's Society of Christian Service met Friday night, November 18 at the church.

"We Gather Together To Seek the Lord's Blessings," was used as the opening hymn. Mrs. Anderson Layden had charge of the devotional, using Scripture from I and II Corinthians.

In observance of the fifteenth anniversary of the WSCS, interesting talks were given by several members about the work of the Society.

Mrs. John N. Winslow, president, presided over the business session. Both old and new business was discussed. During the discussion it was decided to exchange gifts at the December meeting as has been the annual custom. The date has been set for December 16 at 7:30 o'clock. Quarterly reports were filled out at this time and turned over to the
