SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

...ered place to offer their sacrifice of dedication for the six-week-old baby. Simeon saw the couple enter and immediately he knew within his heart that the child they carried was God's Promised One. Eagerly and reverently, he took the little baby in his arms and spoke his praise. He had seen his deepest prayer answered and now he prayed, "Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word: for mine eyes have seen thy salvation, which thou hast prepared before the face of all people; a light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel. Mary and Joseph marvelled at Simeon's words and we may marvel, too. We too should sing with the angels, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth, peace, good will toward men." This is the eternal Christmas song. Those who have accepted God's gift to men can always sing with joy, at all seasons of the year, for they have a peace which passes all understanding, a peace of mind which the chaotic events of the world cannot disturb. The Christian religion has always been known as a singing religion and let us always hope and pray that it will continue to be!

WHAT IS CHRISTMAS MADE OF?

Well, it's things like good cheer... friendship... love, happiness... good will... and there's the laughter of children... the cheerfulness of good fellowship... the warmth of a Yule log and the mystery of gaily wrapped packages... Christmas is the worship of the Prince of Peace... the singing of carols... trimming of Christmas trees and the lighting of candles... It's a marvelous experience made up of things wonderful and beautiful and cheerful. May all of it be yours to enjoy.

It's never very easy to put on paper the myriad thoughts we would really like to voice. In fact, mere words seem wholly inadequate at Christmas. Need we say anything further, then, than this, "It has been a pleasure to know you and have your friendship throughout the year. Merry Christmas."
