

MISS JOAN MADRE BECOMES BRIDE G. D. TRUEBLOOD, JR.

bride, were bridesmaids. Their floor length gowns of maize were styled like that of the honor attendant. They wore matching headresses and carried old-fashioned nosegays of lavender chrysanthemums.

Bobby Stallings was best man. The ushers were Robert Smith, uncle of the bridegroom; Warner Lee Madre, brother of the bride; Johnny Winslow and Burfoot White. Miss Annabelle Privott, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. G. R. Tucker were mistresses of ceremony.

The mother of the bride wore a mauve lace dress over taffeta with navy and mauve accessories and a corsage of Talisman roses. The mother of the bridegroom wore a navy dress with navy and white accessories and a corsage of red roses.

The bride attended Meredith College. The bridegroom is engaged in farming. After a short wedding trip the couple will be at home near Hertford.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Clarence Dail, aunt of the bride, greeted the guest at the door. The dining room table was covered with a linen cut-work cloth with a centerpiece of mixed white flowers flanked by long white tapers in crystal candelabra. Margaret Morris, Carol Inscoc, Betty Lou Hoyle, and Jean Strole, classmates of the bride assisted in serving.

For travel the bride wore a light blue suit with navy accessories.

Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Smith of Washington, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith of Greenville; Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Ray of Lillington; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Privott of Rocky Mount; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Morris and daughters, Elizabeth and Margaret of Fremont; Mr. and Mrs. Alex Tidwell of Suffolk; Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Gresham of Norfolk; Misses Jean Strole of Chadburn; Carol Inscoc of Silver Springs, Md., and Miss Betty Lou Hoyle of Hendersonville.

Meets General

Tommy Jones of Hertford was sitting nonchalantly at a desk in the U. S. Air Force Hospital, Del Rio, Texas, recently, when a man dressed in civilian clothes walked in and asked for a doctor. The seated medic politely replied that the doctor on duty was busy in a conference with the commanding officer of the hospital and couldn't be disturbed. "This is General Arnold," the "civilian" replied, "my daughter's got a sore throat and I'd like to have it attended to." It is reported that one of the fastest "snap to's" in the history of the armed services took place in front of the besneakered general, who was in the area on leave.

JUNIOR CLUB MEETING

Janice Ray Stanton of Winfall was hostess to the junior group of Miss Kate Blanchard's piano class on February 24.

Pupils participating on the program were Judy Winslow, Betsy Barbee, Sandra Hudson, Vick Rouch, Nate Brinn and Janice Ray Stanton. A special feature of the evening's program was the dancing of the Minuet to the music of Mozart whose Bicentennial is being celebrated this year.

Miss Blanchard conducted a quiz on the old patriotic songs, some of which were used in Washington's day. A cherry tree contest and cherry-and-red decorations in the refreshments carried out the Geo. Washington birthday feature.

Besides those mentioned above, others present were Mrs. W. R. Stanton, mother of the hostess, Mrs. Geo. Barbee, Mrs. Howard Winslow, Mrs. A. W. Hudson, Mrs. J. Van Rouch, Mrs. Jack Brinn and Mrs. Verna Ann Perry who danced the Minuet with Betsy Barbee.

Cub Scout Banquet Held Last Thursday

The Cub Scouts of Pack No. 159 held their annual Blue and Gold banquet on Thursday night in the Agricultural Building with 60 people present including the Cubs from three dens and their families.

The meeting was opened by Cub Scoutmaster Clinton Eley. Cub Scout Charles Woodard gave the invocation. Bobby Matthews, Hertford's highest ranking Scout, told the group about the various awards he had won during his Scouting career.

After the program, all present took part in games and contests under the direction of Mrs. R. S. Monds.

The meeting was closed by the Cub Mother's Prayer by Mrs. Clinton Eley.

OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Morgan celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary Tuesday night, February 21, by entertaining informally for their families. The house was attractively decorated with glads, iris and jonquils. Guests were greeted at the door by Preston Morgan. After the gifts were opened and acknowledged, those calling were invited into the dining room where the table was covered with an Italian cutwork cloth centered with a bouquet of white earnations, narcissus and fern in a silver bowl, flanked by silver candelabras holding lighted tapers.

Mrs. Charlie Umphlett presided over the punch bowl, and the tiered cake was cut and served by Mrs. Preston Morgan. Nuts and other delicacies were also served.

The forty guests were entertained by Edward Jordan who sang several selections.
