Legion Groups Hear Talk On Convention

The American Legion Post and its Auxiliary held a joint meeting and breakfast at the Perquimans High School last Friday night, November 7, at which a turkey dinner was served.

A short session on Armistice Day was presided over by First District Commander, B. C. Berry, who was introduced by Post Commander Charles Skinner. Prayer was offered by Tom W'loughby.

J. L. Chestnut, honor guest, gave an interesting talk on the national convention held in Los Angeles and reported to the local units on development of American Legion programs for the coming year.

Mrs. J. L. Chestnut, area vice president and State Chairman of National Security, was then introduced and she related events that occurred at the National Auxiliary meeting at which she was a guest.

Mrs. Chestnut, in her talk, stressed the importance of national security in the Legion and Auxiliary and urged full cooperation by local members.

Mrs. C. P. Morris read a note from the local auxiliary president, Mrs. C. A. Davenport, who was absent. Mr. Skinner then gave a report on the trip a number of local legionnaires made to the Kecoughtan Hospital.

Mrs. Kelly White reminded all auxiliary members to bring Christmas gifts for veterans to the Paragon Beauty Shop as these gifts must be mailed immediately.

The meeting was closed with a prayer in memory of F. T. Johnson, past commander of the American Legion Post.

One penny stands for the profit out of your dollar that Colonial and the food chain industry on the average receives for doing business for you! Nearly 99 cents of your sales dollar goes to buy merchandise and to pay salaries, rent, utilities, equipment, and taxes. The one penny left over builds new stores and warehouses and pays stockholders for their investment. How is this possible? Self-service, cash and carry, large volume, fast turnover — and constant vigilance over costs. By feeding millions for a penny, Colonial seeks to make its contribution to the strength of a greater America. Remember, Your Total Food Bill is Less When you Shop at CSI!
