Margaret Sutton Weds John Hill

The marriage of Miss Margaret Ann Sutton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Sutton of New Hope and John Larry Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Hill of Hertford, was solemnized in a lovely ceremony at the bride's home at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, December 21.

The Rev. Walker B. Perry heard the wedding vows exchanged in a setting of magnolia leaves, baskets of white flowers and candlelight.

Mrs. G. H. Webb played the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Melvin Eure, who sang "Sweetest Story Ever Told" and as a benediction "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white wool suit trimmed in mink, alligator shoes and bag, brown hat and a corsage of cymoidium orchids. Miss Ethel Sutton was only attendant for the bride. She wore a wool jersey dress of medium blue, matching accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Joseph Rodgers of Hertford was best man. Mrs. N. C. Spivey, Sr., was mistress of the ceremony. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Sutton chose a green dress, harmonizing accessories and a corsage of carnations. Mrs. Hill wore a black suit and corsage of carnations.

The bride's parents entertained at a reception immediately following the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill are now making their home at Cherry Point, where he is stationed.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. William F. Hill of Suffolk, Va., Arnold Chappell of Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Pete Spivey of Raleigh and Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Monds of Norfolk, Va.

HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB

Those playing were Mesdames C. M. Williford, T. L. Jessup, Charles E. Johnson, J. D. Coston, C. R. Holmes, Miss Mary Sumner, Miss

Frances Newby and Miss Ruby White. The high score prize went to Mrs. Jessup. A sweet course was served.

HOSTS AT LUNCHEON

The Rev. and Mrs. James A. Auman were hosts to the Methodist Ministerial Fellowship of Chowan and Perquimans Counties Tuesday at lunch. Making up the two-county fellowship group are the Rev. and Mrs. Earl Richardson of Edenton, the Rev. and Mrs. Frank Fortis of Tyner, the Rev. and Mrs. Bill Pett of Durants Neck, the Rev. and Mrs. Max Dulin of Winfall, the Rev. and Mrs. P. M. Porter (retired) of Hertford, and the Aumans. Special guest at Tuesday's luncheon meeting was District Superintendent C. Freeman Heath of Elizabeth City.

AUXILIARY MEETS

The American Legion Auxiliary of the William Paul Stallings unit 126 met January 2, in the home of Mrs. Charles Skinner, with Mrs. Oscar Newbold, co-hostess. Eighteen members were present.

The program was National Security and Legislation. How the legislative policy is formed was given by Ruth Powell. National security works for units, and civil defense was given by Anne Goodwin.

The cook books of favorite recipes of local people were distributed to members.

The February meeting will be at the home of Mrs. C. P. Morris.

CLUB MEETS

The members of the Perquimans BPW Club were entertained Thursday evening by Miss Hulda Wood at her home on Grubb Street. Mrs. Alice Owens presided over the January business session, items on the agenda being committee reports, flowers for the sick, gifts in appreciation of the services of non-members, recommendation for a candidate for the Jaycee Young Man of the Year, decision to have a Club Women of the Year, and other matters. At the end of a most enjoyable meeting, the hostess served a delicious ice-course, and the club adjourned to meet again at the home of Mrs. Dora T. Riddick on the third Thursday evening for the monthly covered-dish dinner and program.
