GIRL SCOUT WEEK

Girl Scout Week will be on March 6-12. The Girl Scout organization has grown much in the past year. In 1962 the 50th anniversary of Girl Scouting will be observed.

The Hertford Girl Scouts, Troop 2, organized a year ago this month, are planning activities for each day of Girl Scout Week.

On Sunday, March 6, the Girl Scouts in uniform will attend the Hertford Baptist Church in a body. A display of their art and craft work will be arranged on Monday in one of the downtown store windows. Tuesday is Citizenship Day. A visit is planned to the Court House to view the old deeds which only a few of the girls have seen. Health and Safety Day will be highlighted by purchasing a first aid kit.

The Girl Scouts want to publicly express their thanks to the people from all countries in our town who have very graciously told the Girl Scouts about their country and their customs. The girls have learned about England, Germany, Italy and Puerto Rico.

Following Mr. Drew Pearson's suggestion, the Girl Scouts of Hertford last summer mailed a copy of Life Magazine to a person in Russia. Would it not be a coincidence if we should hear on March 10, International Friendship Day, that someone in Russia had received this magazine?

On Friday, Arts and Crafts Day, the display will be changed, so that the public can see more of the art work the Girl Scouts have done.

March 12 is Girl Scout Birthday and Out of Doors Day. A hike and a cook-out are planned as a grand finale of Girl Scout Week.

Each girl will try every day to do a good deed at home or school.

HD Club Music Training Planned

Mrs. Fred Mathews, Eastern District Music Chairman, reminds that "Music Is The Universal Language". Several years ago the Home Demonstration

Organization and the N. C. Public School Supervisors combined efforts to bring a music program to the public which would give a greater understanding and appreciation of "The Universal Language".

Club members and interested friends will have the opportunity to participate in the annual District Spring Music Training. This year the training will be held Friday, March 11 at Moyock Baptist Church, beginning at 10 A. M. During the day many areas of music will be stressed. An appreciation of music and techniques will be taught by Miss Ruth Jewel, supervisor of N. C. Public Music. Miss Jewel will teach songs selected from "Come Let's Sing," church music and recreational music.

Home Demonstration Club Music Leaders are planning to attend this meeting. Leaders will contact others in their community. If any person would like transportation please contact Mrs. Fred Mathews, or Mrs. Paige Underwood, Home Economics Agent.
