

Annual May Day Festival

The annual May Day Festival will be held at Hertford Grammar School Friday, May 13, beginning at 3:00 P. M., with this year's theme being "Garden of Eden." This is the second year that May Day activities have been sponsored by the Department of Music of Perquimans County, under the supervision of Miss Caroline Wright, public school music teacher. Working with her will be the Hertford Grammar School teachers and part of the faculty of the Perquimans High School.

A special feature of the day will be a fifteen-minute concert of music, termed "old favorites," by the High School Glee Club. Among the numbers they will sing are: "The Desert Song," "Southwestern Men," "Oklahoma," and "I Love You Truly." Solists will be Gene Boyce, Gail Johnson, Eva Ann Smith and Sandra Keel. The five-piece "Glee Band" of Perquimans High will also perform.

Each grade of the grammar school will present some feature of the "Garden of Eden," with folk dances and hymns, as well as the traditional winding of the Maypole. There will also be some ballet and tap dancing as the story of the Garden unfolds.

Miss Dorothy Morse will be crowned May Queen and her attendants will be Misses Katherine Sawyer, Paige Ann Chapman and Janice Stanton.

The public is invited to attend the May Day Festival, tulle over satin. Her fingertip skirt of chantilly lace, underscored with flounces of nylon veil was arranged from a dainty tiara of iridescent sequins and antique pearls, and she carried a prayer book with a white orchid and cascaded with lily-of-the-valley.

Mrs. Howard Williams, Jr., was matron-of-honor. Miss Mary Ann Harris was maid-of-honor. They wore gowns of aqua pima cotton, styled in a bateau neckline with puffed elbow length sleeves and a very full gathered skirt accented by a waist cummerbund and matching headband. They carried a cascade of yellow roses and carnations.

Richard H. White of Staten Island, New York, was best man. Ushers were the Rev. James D. MacKenzie and Richard W. Schuman.

Mrs. J. Ellie White played the wedding music and accompanied Michael Malone, who sang, "O Perfect Love," and as a benediction, Bobby Overton sang "The Wedding Prayer."

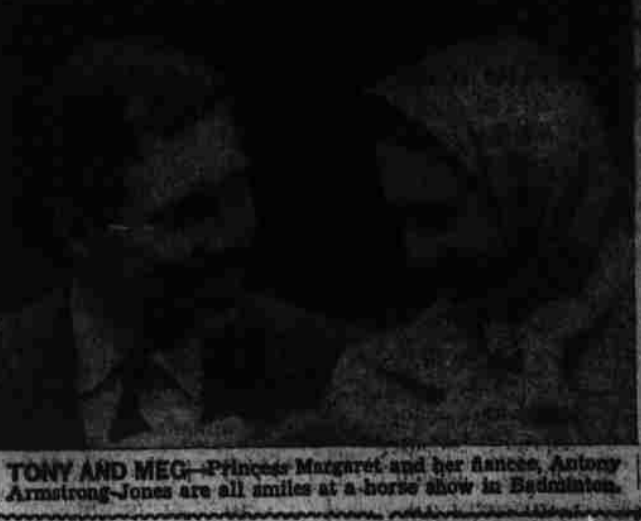

Miss Nancy Wood Carson was mistress of ceremony.

The mother of the bride wore a navy blue eylet dress with matching accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue faille dress with matching accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

After the wedding ceremony, the couple left for a trip in the western part of the state, and upon their return will make their home near Edenton.

The bride traveled in a green figured dress with matching walking length coat. Her accessories were black. She wore the orchid lifted from her prayer book.

SUNLAY SCHOOL LESSON

The toxins of hate, greed, superiority, invidiousness and impurity must go. Peace cannot come to humanity until men deal with the toxins that produce the boils. We must be concerned with helping people caught in the webs of high tariffs, soil erosion, depleted soils, impoverished minds and dwarfed souls. We must learn to seek to be perfect—"be mature"—as our Father in heaven is mature. This means to grow in character and to develop actions consistent with good will toward others. It means putting our shoulders to the yoke and pushing with all our might. We are to help make peace. And what a reward awaits us: they shall be called Sons of God!

Negro HD Clubs Observing Week

The Negro Home Demonstration Club women are celebrating National Home Demonstration Club Week this week, May 1-7. The theme for this week is "Today's Home Builds Tomorrow's World." Plans being carried out locally are as follows:

Countywide Union Service, Workshop on Refinishing Furniture, Thursday, May 5, in the agents' office building; countywide cleanup campaign, and a radio program on Thursday, May 5.

Mrs. M. B. Taylor urges the public to join in the observance.
