

THE PER-CO-HI SPECTATOR

By LINDA BASS and KATHRYN BOWNER

A photographer was at Perquimans County High School last Thursday and took the class pictures for the Klloca-nen. The pictures will be finished and returned to the school within the next month in order to give the students the opportunity of buying them to give as Christmas gifts. The photographer will return in a month to take the remaining group and club pictures.

The Juniors took the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Tests Tuesday morning. Taking these tests will be of help to them in making better scores on the Scholastic Aptitude Tests of college. Board examinations which they are required to take before they can enter college. This P.S.A.T. is not required but a large percentage of Juniors always take it each year.

We were happy to have the Rev. James Auman, pastor of the First Methodist Church in Hertford, to give a program in assembly on Friday morning. He gave a most interesting talk and illustrated it with slides which he took about his around-the-world trip which he took during the past summer with a group of ministers. All of us enjoyed hearing about his experiences.

During the half-time activities at our homecoming game between the Perquimans Indians and Williamston last Friday night, Miss Sandra Hudson was crowned Monogram Queen of 1960-61 by the retiring Queen, Miss Phyllis Hendren. Miss Hudson was sponsored by the Bus Station. First runner-up was Miss Joanne Hurdle, and second runner-up was Miss Mary Matthews.

An error was made in last week's column in reporting the class. The class has sold magazine sales of the Senior $1,429.50 instead of $2,002.96.

This total is only half of the goal of $2,800. There are only two days remaining in which to get subscriptions, so get out and work, Seniors! The high salesmen for the first eight days of the drive now include the following: Hubert Burden, Phyllis Hendren, Dianne Hollowell, Connie Boyce, Jean Copeland, Linda Bass and Elton Baccus.

The Beta Club is still selling this of candy of which the profit will be used to help finance the trip to the State Convention to be held in Asheville in the spring. Also, during the Edenton football game, chances will be sold on cakes. The lucky numbers will be drawn during the halftime. Let's support our team and the Beta Club Friday night!

Remember when there were only eleven grades in school? Consider yourselves lucky, students, for then 16 units were required in eleven years. Now we have twelve years in which to gain the 16 needed units for graduation.

BRIDE-ELECT HONORED

Miss Beth Skinner, whose marriage to John Gordon Jethro will take place Saturday afternoon at Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, was honored at a tea given by the Episcopal Church women of Holy Trinity Parish on Friday afternoon at the rectory.

The hours for calling were from 4 to 6 o'clock, and approximately 50 guests attended.

The entire lower floor of the spacious home was tastefully decorated with attractive arrangements of multi-colored fall flowers. In the dining room, the table was covered with a beautiful cut-work linen cloth and the centerpiece of white chrysanthemums was arranged in a silver bowl, flanked by lighted candles in silver candlesticks.

Mrs. Hoyle Umphlett and Miss Sallie Skinner received at the front door. In the receiving line which was formed in the living room, were Mrs. Edwin F. Moseley, Mrs. Frank Skinner, Miss Beth Skinner, Mrs. Dallas Jethro, Sr., Mrs. J. J. Skinner and Mrs. Dallas Jethro, Jr.

Mrs. Walter G. Edwards and Mrs. Silas M. Whedbee invited the guests into the dining room where Mrs. Willis Jessup served punch. Others assisting in serving open-face sandwiches, cheese straws, cookies, nuts and mints were Mrs. W. H. Hardesty, Mrs. Sidney P. Jessup and Mrs. H. A. Whitley.

Goodbyes were said to Mrs. Umphlett.

MILLER - MYERS VOWS SPOKEN SATURDAY

The bridegroom's mother was gowned in an afternoon dress of teal blue crepe with black feathered hat, and other accessories of black. Her corsage was pink carnations.

Grandmothers of the bridegroom were gowned in navy blue with matching accessories and corsage of white carnations. Mistress of ceremonies was Mrs. J. A. Auman.

For traveling the bride chose a purple wool sheath dress, matching hat, alligator accessories and the orchid lifted from her prayer book.

The bride and bridegroom are both graduates of Perquimans County High School. She graduated from the School of Practical Nursing in Elizabeth City in the September class and is now employed by the Albemarle Hospital. The bridegroom is employed by the Albemarle Chemical Company in Winfall, where the couple will live.

MORE ABOUT PTA

A gift was given to the oldest father; being Floyd Mathews. Billy Winslow received the gift for being the youngest. Mrs. White announced that next month the prize goes to the couple having the most children enrolled in school.

Mrs. White showed the silver cup received for selling the most magazines. The year book was presented to the PTA and is to be placed in the library.

Following adjournment, cookies, fruit cake and punch was served in the reception room. Parents visited the rooms to become better acquainted with the teachers.

MORE ABOUT VEITNAM

Diem has pulled his nation together and created here a little bastion against further Communist encroachments. With our help, roads have been built, industries have been developed and the agricultural foundation strengthened through land reforms and the introduction of better methods and new crops. Rice is an extremely important crop. Accomplishments of American foreign aid are impressive, but don't have to be there long to realize the battle is still on and the final victory unsure. Guerrillas have stepped up activities since January. Diem government is coming under more and more criticism. To peasants who are subjected to regular night raids by Red terrorists, Diem seems a distant figure. These people are much like the Chinese in appearance, 1,000,000 are Catholics, 35,000 are Protestants and the remainder of the 23,000,000 are Buddhists. The government is predominantly Catholic, but the president is said to lean heavily on two Protestant leaders. If the present grumbling should grow and the Diem government fall, no one can guess the future of this country. However, the United States placed its multi-million dollar bet on this country six years ago when it was vastly more insecure than read and approved it is today.

KING STREET PTA BACKS BOY SCOUTS

It was decided that the parents would have Halloween activities for the benefit of the PTA.

Mr. Kudrick then presented Joseph Davis and his co-workers, District Scout Representatives. Mr. Davis told and gave pertinent information about Scouting and the extension of it in this area. He wished to have an assisting sponsoring organization. The group gave its endorsement of this request. Five persons were to meet with the other sponsoring organization to iron out details for putting Scouting on a 12-month basis. Saturday, October 22, all Scouts are invited to attend the camporee at the Elizabeth City State Teachers College.

CIRCLE MEETING

The Mary Long Circle of the Bethel Baptist Church met Monday night, October 17, at the home of Mrs. Wade Jordan with 11 members and one visitor present. The meeting was opened with the hymn "The Whole Wide World."

Scripture was given by Mrs. Thomas Fleetwood. The hymn "Bringing In the Sheaves" was sung, followed with prayer by Mrs. Wade Jordan. Mrs. Fleetwood then gave a very interesting program, "Enlistment For World Missions" with several members taking part.

Roll was called and minutes

Unbridled Wit

The meeting was closed by repeating the watchword.

A Bible contest was given with Mrs. Julian Long winning the prize.

The hostess then served cold drinks, cookies and nuts, which were enjoyed by all.

Goofus—Who won?
Rufus—He tossed me for it.
