Sales tax collections for October 1950 amounted to $7,399 while collections for the same period last year were $7,056. Gross retail sales for September 1950 amounted to $338,425, while sales during October jumped to $396,528.

County Ranks 6th On Blood Program
 Perquimans County ranked 6th in this district for blood donations to the Red Cross blood program during the past six months, according to Glenn Broster, Red Cross Field Representative.

Pasquotank County was first with 126 per cent of its quota of 209 pints of blood. Perquimans County residents had contributed 94 per cent of its quota, Mr. Broster said.

Hertford Couple Buys Beach Inn
 Announcement was made from Nags Head Tuesday of the purchase of the First Colony Inn by Senator and Mrs. J. Emmett Winslow of Hertford, who will operate the famous resort hotel.

The announcement said extensive renovations will be made to the inn, including installation of a bath for each room and some efficiencies. The dining room will not be operated. The First Colony Inn has not been in operation since the death of Capt. C. P. Midgett about a year ago.

Layden Funeral Held Saturday
 A graveside service for Norman Floyd Layden, 50, of Belvidere, who was fatally injured in an automobile accident early Thursday morning, was conducted Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Layden family cemetery near Belvidere. The Rev. Harold White, pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Rocky Mount officiated.

Theasket pall was made of cast roses, white carnations and fern.
 Pallbearers were Odell Cartwright, Wallace Cartwright, Louis Spivey, Wallace Layden and Malcolm Nixon.

England At One Time Banned Celebration of Christmas As Holiday
 Christmas celebrations become so merry in Merrie Old England that they were abolished.

World Book Encyclopedia notes that the Puritans prohibited the boisterous observances in the 1640's. They threw out ministers who dared to hold services on Christmas Day and jailed anyone who didn't treat December 25 as a common work day. But while the Puritans were
