

Wedding Held At West Point

The West Point chapel was the setting for the wedding on Friday, December 23, of Miss Jean Eleanor Powell and Lt. Franklin Alford Mc-Googan, Jr. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wallace Powell of St. Johnsville, N. Y. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. McGoogan of Hertford.

The United States Military Academy chaplain, Rev. James D. Ford, officiated. A program of wedding music was presented by John A. Davis, Jr., USMA, organist.

Included was a prelude written for the occasion by Miss Letitia McGoogan, sister of the bridegroom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Deluster satin, made with a dome skirt, fitted bodice, long tapered pointed sleeves, appliqued with Venice lace and bodice to hemline, with a chapel train. Her fingertip veil was held to a crown of pearls and drop crystals. She carried a cascade of white bridal roses and stephanotis.

Miss Loretta E. Tolfa of Schneectady, N. Y., was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Nancy Gail Somers, cousin of the bride, of Scotia, N. Y., and Miss Letitia Ann McGoogan, sister of the bridegroom, of Annapolis, Md. They wore identical full length gowns made with moss green velvet bodices and white satin brocade skirts. Their flowers were white poinsettias.

Franklin McGoogan, Sr., was best man for his son. Bruce W. Powell, brother of the bride, was an usher, and serving as ushers and saber bearers were Lt. William O'Connor, Fort Lewis, Wash.; Lt. Michael Kimmel, Statesville, N. C.; Lt. Chester Keith, Somerset, Pa., and Lt. Richard Darby, Long Island, N. Y., all classmates of the bridegroom.

For the wedding Mrs. Powell wore a dress of gold crepe with matching lace coat, and corsage of pale yellow orchids. Mrs. McGoogan wore a dress and matching jacket of light green brocade, and a corsage of yellow orchids.

Following the wedding the parents of the bride entertained at a reception in the Officers Club, West Point Army Mess. The couple left for a wedding trip to Bermuda. For traveling the bride wore a three-piece suit of white wool with wine colored accessories and flowers.

The bride is a graduate of the State University of New York College at New Paltz, and is teaching at Fort Bragg, N. C. The bridegroom graduated from the United States Military Academy, West Point, N. Y., and is stationed at Fort Bragg, where the couple will make their home.

Following the wedding rehearsal on Thursday night, a dinner was given at the Hotel Thayer for the bridal party and out-of-town guests. Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. McGoogan, Sr., and Miss Letitia McGoogan.
