HAYING PROBLEMS? LET'S GET TOGETHER

The Perquimans County Board of Education met here Monday night in the Superintendent's office in the Perquimans County Courthouse and vacancies in the school faculty were filled.

The resignation of Frances Marshbourne, who has been teaching the seventh grade in Hertford Grammar School was accepted. employment of Mrs. Julian A. (Minnie) White to fill the vacancy was approved.

The employment of Miss Mary Morris and Miss Fran-Marshbourne by the E.S.E.A Office was approved by the Board.

During the meeting the board voted to approve the extension of the period of absence because of sickness for Mrs. Fenton (Elizabeth) Britt and George Reid.

It was decided that the old house on the property which the Board is in the process of acquiring would be given to the Hertford Fire Department upon the receipt of the deed of the property by the

A lengthy discussion of "Compliance Plans" for the 1967-68 term ensued, howeber no decisions on the matter were made.

The instruction program in the schools was discussed at length. It was pointed out that the teaching of English was the most difficult of all teaching. A thorough knowledge of English is needed for all other phases of instruction, and the Board resolved to give greater support and emphasis to the teaching of English in the future.

D. H. Eure made a motion which was seconded by John Danchise and a resolution was passed to offer for sale, in the manner prescribed by law, a 1953 Chevrolet dump truck and a 1949 Ford pickup truck. These vehicles are no longer needed for school purposes.

Astor Perry, extension peanut specialist, will be here to conduct this meeting and he will bring the latest recommendations for production of peanuts for 1967. Joe Suggs, executive secretary, N. C. Peanut Growers Association, will present the trophy for the highest yield in Perquimans County and will also bring peanut growers up to date on ac-tivities that the association is carrying on. "Peanuts are still Perquimans County's No. 1 crop on the acre basis, and even though we experienced dif-ficulties in 1966, during the growing season our yield John A. and Mrs. Margaret was very respectable," states Snowden White. R. M. Thompson, county extension chairman. "The average yield for Perquimans County was about 2,500 pounds to the acre, which is a little lower than it was in have the opportunity to push this average on up through proper production practices and the purpose of the meet-ing is to inform you of these practices:"

We hope you will be present so that you can participate. If you, have, soil samples you would like sent off, this will be a good opportunity to send them to Raleigh, says Mr. Thompson.

Notice To Subscribers

In the past few weeks we have been in the process of changing expiration dates on our mailing lists. We first had to work our out of town subscribers in order to get the Zip Codes on which are now required by the Post Office Department to insure delivery. Anyone who subscribes to this paper and are not in the county are urgently requested to let us know if you have missed any copies of your paper. In handling all the new subscriptions and renewals, and cutting off those whose subscriptions has expired, we no doubt will make some mistakes. If through error your paper is stopped, either here in the county or outside the county, kindly notify this office preferably by card or letter so that we can make the necessary correction. Please, in advising us as to whether you are receiving your paper, getting two papers, or no paper at all, give us your address, the exact name in which you were receiving it, and most of all include your Zip Code. We must know where your paper is going in order to give you faster service in checking on it. Due to the many subscriptions handled during our campaign, it is highly probable that some have been made in addre ing the papers, getting the correct name on the paper and in some cases a scriber may be receiving the husband of Mrs. Georgia two copies of The Weekly. If such be the case with your subscription, we will appreciate it very much if you will notify this office immediately, and as we said "give name, address and 1, Division 1 of the N.
