

Church School Is Successful

The First Methodist Church held its Vacation Church School last week, June 5 through June 9, from 9 until 11:30 A. M.

Kindergartners studied about "Friends Around Me," which directed their thinking toward the realization that God's care is expressed through persons and that children themselves are called to be friends and helpers to others. Teachers and helpers were: Mrs. Evelyn Reed, Mrs. Sara Winslow, Mrs. Betty Beall, Misses Pam Cox, Bea Skipsey and Nancy Reed.

The theme for Elementary I-II was "My Family In the Community." They discovered that it is part of God's purpose for us to live together in communities and to appreciate our interdependence. Mrs. Georgia Perry, Mrs. Celtic Skinner, Mrs. Bryant Woodell, Misses Susan Harrell and Cindy Winslow served as teachers and helpers.

In Elementary III-IV boys and girls studied "Bible Lands and Times." This unit helped them to understand better the people and places in the Bible. Rev. R. L. Bame, Mrs. Joan Kirby and Mrs. Carolyn Lane were teachers. The helpers were Misses Peggy White and Anne Simpson.

Paul was the unit of study for Elementary V-VI. The students were helped to see the character of a great missionary and also the wonderful work which helped make Christianity a world wide religion. Teachers and helpers were: Mrs. Evelyn Taylor, Mrs. Margaret Lane, Misses Karen Haskett and Linda Decker.

Circles of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guild provided refreshments for the school each day, which had an average attendance of 85.

On Friday evening, June 9 at 7:30, parents and friends attended the open house. The class rooms were attractive and very interesting with many displays of creative activities relating to the units of study. The children seemed proud, and rightly so, to guide their parents around the rooms. It had been a wonderful week of study, worship and fun.

Designing Youngster

Junior was invited to supper at Billy's house but refused. When Ma asked why, Junior sneered. "He just wants me to help him eat up his cereal so he can have the box tops."

Six From Here On Dean's List

Perquimans County students have mastered subjects ranging from horticultural science to electrical engineering to win six places on the Dean's List at North Carolina State University.

Chancellor John T. Caldwell announced that the six Perquimans men were among a record number earning the Dean's List. Some 1,400 students, approximately 15 per cent of the spring enrollment, won the honors.

All of the Perquimans students are graduates of Perquimans County High School.

For the fall semester the county had only one student on the honor roll:

Following are the students who earned the honors, their classes, courses, parents and addresses:

Charles W. Chappell, a sophomore in electrical engineering, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie G. Chappell, Star Route, Winfall.

Charles T. Harrell, a sophomore in horticultural science, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thurman R. Harrell, Route 1, Hertford.

Robert F. Hill, a senior in electrical engineering, son of the Rev. and Mrs. H. M. Hill, Route 1, Belvidere.

Charles W. Stallings, a freshman in textile chemistry, son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Stallings, Route 1, Hertford.

William H. Williams, a sophomore in agriculture and life sciences, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll R. Williams, Route 2, Hertford.

William T. Winslow, a senior in horticultural science, son of Mr. and Mrs. Linford L. Winslow, Star Route, Winfall.
