Book Fair Coming To Grammar School

The Hertford Grammar School will sponsor a student book fair on November 9th and 10th. During library periods, students will be able to browse and select books. Parents and visitors may be able to see the books and place orders November 9th at 8:00 p.m. and November 10th from 2:45 to 4:30 p.m. Books will be on display in the library of the school. All books must be paid for when order is placed.

The book fair committee invites all students, parents and visitors to attend the fair. The fair will not only help spur student interest in reading and building home libraries but will also contribute to a worthwhile project. The school earns 20% of all sales and profits will be used for new books for the school library.

The P. T. A. is sponsoring this event, with Mrs. Phillip Thack serving as book fair chairman.

The book fair display will include attractive new books from many publishers in all popular price ranges. All reading areas of interest to students will be represented, including classics, fiction, biographies, adventure stories, science, nature, crafts, mysteries and reference books. Wonderful books to read or to give as gifts. The P. T. A. is working with Educational Reading Service, a professional book fair company, to furnish an individual selection of books for the fair.
