Miss Patricia Ann Banks of Stoneham, N.C., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin B. Banks of Rt. 3, Hertford, N.C., and Daniel Petit Calderwood of Goldsboro, N.C., son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Calderwood of Williamette, Conn. were united in marriage, using the double ring ceremony. Rev. David Calderwood, brother of the groom, of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary, and Rev. Claude Wilson of New Bern officiated. The vows were spoken before a setting of palms, arrangements of poinsettias, white mums, and Gothic candelabra. The wedding music was presented by Mrs. Harvey Butt, Jr., organist. Bobby Jones of Hertford was soloist. Prior to the ceremony he sang "Each for the Other" and as a benediction "The Wedding Prayer." The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a formal gown by Bridallure of New York of Angelskin peau and chantilly lace. The gown had a high neckline trimmed in lace with elbow length sleeves. The paneled Watteau train was detachable and trimmed with chantilly lace. The two-tiered veil of bridal illusion was attached to a headpiece which featured seed pearls and flowers. She carried a bouquet of white poinsettias on a white Bible.

Mrs. R. Edward Miller of Raleigh, N.C., sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a gown of garnet Christmas velvet made with empire styling, puffed sleeves, and matching headpiece. Her flowers were a bouquet of red carnations, holly, and pyracantha.

Mrs. Larry Hyler of Goldsboro, N.C. was bridesmaid. Miss Susan Banks, sister of the bride, of Hertford, was junior bridesmaid. Their gowns were of emerald green Christmas velvet and styled identically to that of the honor attendant. They carried bouquets like that of the matron of honor.

Miss Beverly Harris of Oneonta, New York, niece of the groom, was flower girl. Her dress was of red velvet. Lloyd Wallace Nixon, Jr., cousin of the bride, was ring-bearer.

Best man was the groom's brother, Edson Calderwood, of Boston, Mass. Ushers were Larry Hyler of Goldsboro and Bob Townsend of St. Johnsbury, Vermont. Groomsmen were Fred Harris and Don Smith of Seymour

Johnson Air Force Base, Goldsboro, N.C. Mrs. Edward C. Barber was mistress of ceremonies. Mrs. W. W. Bundy presided at the bride's book.

The mother of the bride was attired in an emerald green dress of knit crepe with matching accessories. Her corsage was of red roses. The mother of the groom wore a Dior-blue dress of lace over silk linen with matching accessories. Her flowers were also red roses.

After the vows were exchanged, the Lord's Supper was observed.

Following the ceremony, guests were greeted at a reception at the New Hope Community Building. Christmas punch, nuts, and mints were served with the bride's wedding cake. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Edward C. Barber, Mrs. W. W. Bundy, Mrs. Robert Sutton, Miss Sally Baker and Miss Sharon Bundy.

For a wedding trip to unannounced points, the bride changed to a white wool suit trimmed with red and blue matching blue fur. The couple will reside in Goldsboro. The bride is a graduate of Atlantic Christian College and is presently teaching at Trent Academy in New Bern. IF YOU CAN SAVE MONEY AT THE SUPERMARKET, YOU CAN SAVE MONEY

AT THE BANK.

Today's average American housewife is a pretty shrewd businesswoman. She has to be . . . what with all the problems that inflation has brought. That's why she's mighty careful about how she spends her money. And that's why grocery stores, supermarkets and the like run those advertisements telling her about their sales. They know she's constantly looking for ways to save money.

The supermarket is a pretty good place to save money. But it's not the only place housewives can save money. They could open a Peoples Bank Savings Account and save money there too.

So if you're a housewife trying to save money . . . try saving it at Peoples Bank.
