

THE PERQUIMANS WEEKLY

Volume XXVII-16

Hertford, Perquimans County, North Carolina, April 16, 1970

10 Cents Per Copy

PAUL GREENS "CAROLINA," PCHS APRIL 17th

Meet Your Perquimans Marching Unit

SHERON SWINDELL

MARGARET MANSFIELD

PATRICIA ANN LANE

Miss Sheron Lynn Swindell, Co-Chairman of Publicity for the Marching Unit, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion S. Swindell. Sheron is 16 years old and a junior at Perquimans High School. She is 5 feet 11 1/2 in. tall, has medium brown hair and brown eyes. Her hobbies are sewing, reading, dancing and playing the piano.

For the past 3 years she has been a drummer in the marching unit, a member of FHA, and Health Careers Club, and a member of Youth. National Association for Retarded Children for 2 years. She is a member of First United Methodist Church and Methodist Youth Fellowship.

Following graduation Sheron hopes to go into special education or some field concerned with working with the handicapped.

Miss Margaret Mansfield, a Snare Drummer in the Marching Unit, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Odus Mansfield.

She is 18 years old and a Senior at Perquimans High School. She is 5 feet 3 in. tall, with brown hair and brown eyes. Her hobbies are sewing, reading and collecting things.

For the past four years she has been a member of the Marching Unit, Health Club, and FHA. She was Vice-President of FHA in the 11th grade, and President in the 12th grade. She was also Publicity Chairman for the Marching Unit in the 11th grade.

Margaret's future plans are to join the Armed Forces and study nursing.

Miss Patricia Ann Lane is the 17 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie T. Lane, Jr.

She is 5 feet 3 in. tall, has dark brown hair and blue eyes, her hobbies are sewing, singing, and swimming.

She has been a majorette in the Marching Unit for the past two years. Her other activities include girls track team 9th grade, Health Club 10th grade, Library Assistant 10th - 12th, FHA 9th - 12th, and Secretary of FHA in the 12th grade.

Patricia is a senior at Perquimans High School and her future plans are to go to COA next year, then transfer to East Carolina University and major in Home Economics.

Paul Green's Carolina Friday Night At PCHS

Perquimans County residents will have the opportunity of hearing a reading of "Paul's Green's Carolina" when it is presented by the SATYRS at Perquimans County High School on Friday evening, April 17 at 8 o'clock p.m.

While Paul Green, Pulitzer Prize winning playwright, is best known in this area for outdoor drama, such as THE LOST COLONY, he is also an excellent short story writer. Mrs. Lucy Vaughn, Assistant Professor of English at the College of the Albemarle, has taken some of her most appealing short stories and set them to a background of folk guitar music for this presentation.

The Perquimans County Arts Council urges everyone to attend this performance which it is sponsoring as one of several "Experiences in the Arts" for the people of Perquimans County.

National Library Week Is April 12-18, 1970

The week of April 12-18 has been designated National Library Week, and the Perquimans County Library Board and staff invite all the people of the area to visit the library and see and use the wealth of reading material available.

The books (about 20,000 in number) cover a wide variety of subjects offering something for everyone, ranging from reference books for the serious student to "bestsellers" and other fiction and non-fiction for the general reader to picture books for the pre-schoolers.

Perquimans County has a library to be proud of, and its people are urged to use it.

The library has received two memorial books this week: The biography of Mary Queen of Scots, by Fraser, given in memory of Hattie Chappell Brinn and the Eighteenth Century, Europe in the Age of Enlightenment, also in memory of Mrs. Brinn.

Other new titles in the library are: Wellington, the Year of the Sword, by Longford; Between Parent and Teen-ager, by Ginott; Brother, can you Spare a Dime, by Meltzer; DeepWater Family, by Duncan; Dare County, a history, by David Stick. Also the following fiction Waiting for Willa, by Dorothy Eden; The Poseidon Adventure, by Gallico;

Malady in Madeira, by Bridge; The Andromeda Strain, by Crichton; Take What You Want, by Baldwin; The Past Tense of love, by Cadell; The Eye of the Needle, by Garland; Reardon, by Pike; and Mesabi, by Banning. Souther, by Armstrong and Sylvester and the Magic Pebble, by Steig, the winners of the Newberry and Caldecott awards as best children's books of the year, are new additions to the childrens collection.

Brant Murray Is Named To Governor's School

Brant Murray, Perquimans High School student has been invited to attend the Governor's School, a summer session for in-depth study on the Salem College Campus.

The selection of academically and artistically gifted students to study with outstanding educators in each field gives the student an opportunity for experimentation and preparation for more advanced study on the college level.

Murray will study English.

Four hundred of North Carolina's most intelligent and talented students are chosen every year to attend the school.

Tax Office Opens

GREENSBORO -- All IRS offices in North Carolina will have personnel available to give assistance to taxpayers in preparing their tax returns on April 15, the final day for filing.

J. E. Wall, District Director, said that calendar year taxpayers should have their returns in the mail to the Service Center in Chamblee, Georgia by midnight Wednesday, April 15, in order for the return to be accepted as timely filed.

Wins Trip To London, England

Mrs. Nellie Mansfield of Perquimans County representative for the Charlotte Liberty Mutual Ins. Co. has won an all expense paid trip to England.

This trip was based on the increase and collection percentage for the year 1969.

Mrs. Mansfield will take this trip on May 21st. She expressed her thanks to her many policy holders, for making the trip possible.

Benefit Supper May 1st At Perq. High School

Members of the Perquimans County Marching Unit and of the civic organizations in the county are busily selling tickets to the benefit barbequed chicken supper to be held May 1 at the Perquimans County High School cafeteria.

Proceeds are being used to help finance the Marching Unit's trip to Atlantic City for the International Lions Club Convention parade July 1.

The drawing for a 15,000 BTU air conditioner will also be held on May 1.

Public support of these projects will be greatly appreciated according to Sheron Swindell and Anzie Layton, Publicity Chairmen.

Mrs. L. Paul Smith Is Conducting Class at PCHS

Adults may learn the art of arranging flowers in the Basic Flower Arranging class scheduled to begin Monday April 20 at Perquimans County High School. Offered through the Adult Education Division of College of the Albemarle, the courses will meet each Monday from 7-10 p.m.

Interested persons may pre-register by calling the Adult Education Division at COA, phone 335-0621, or register at the first class meeting. Persons who pre-register will have priority since enrollment will be limited.

Mary Ruth Smith of Doziers Florist will be the instructor for the 24 hour course.

Students will be taught an understanding of depth and movement in flower arranging. Emphasis will be on the different types of arrangements - line, mass, color, texture and how to combine these elements in the proper containers. Arrangements for special occasions and accessories will also be considered.

Mrs. Baccus Dies After Short Illness

Mrs. Maggie Winslow Baccus, 68, died Friday at 6:43 p.m. in the Albemarle Hospital following an illness of four months.

A native of Perquimans County, she was a daughter of the late Joseph Benjamin and Mrs. Eleanor Chappell Winslow and the widow of the late Johnny C. Baccus. She was a member of the Pentecostal Holiness Church.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Leona Meads of Route 2, Mrs. Pauline White of Woodbridge, Va. and Mrs. Phyllis Mansfield of Hertford; five sons, Odell Baccus and Lindsey Baccus of Route 2, Gilbert Baccus and Marvin Baccus of Elizabeth City and Aubrey Baccus of Louisiana; a sister, Mrs. Mary Shipley of Baltimore, Maryland; 15 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Sunday at 3:00 in the Pentecostal Holiness Church in Elizabeth City by the Rev. W. A. Renfro, Rev. A. B. Ham and the Rev. Irving Baccus.

"Heaven" and "Supper time" were sung by Leticia Lindbuckler, Judy Overman and Linda Meads, they were accompanied by Danny Meads. Miss Edna Earl Meads served as organist.

The casket pall was made of pink carnations, white chrysanthemums, baby's breath and fern.

Pallbearers were Elton Baccus, Jimmy Baccus, Dickie Medas, Wayne Owens, Joe Meigs and James O. Perry.

Burial was in Westlawn Cemetery, Elizabeth City.

Hert. Colonial Store Robbed Fri. Morning

BERNARD WARD

JERRY HILLIARD JR.

Two suspected armed robbers were apprehended in Elizabeth City Friday morning shortly after allegedly robbing the Colonial Store located in the Harris Shopping Center here holding employees at gunpoint and making off with $1,978.

They are identified as Bernard Ward, 23, and Jerry Hilliard, Jr., 23 both of Portsmouth, Va.

A third man George Washington Sutton of Hertford was arrested by Hertford police in connection with the robbery. The man was seen talking to the two arrested men prior to the robbery.

The robbery occurred at 8:40 a.m. Friday morning while customers and employees were in the Hertford store.

The two Portsmouth men entered the Colonial Store and held the store manager Stanley Chory, the produce manager Jake Chesson, cashier Joe Hunter, and two milk delivery men at gunpoint.

Manager Chory was ordered to open the safe and hand over the money. It was estimated the pair of bandits were in the store approximately 10 minutes before leaving with the money in a brown paper bag. The robbers victims were ordered to give the pair five minutes before leaving the office or contacting the police.

Manager Chory called Chief of Police B. L. Gibbs immediately. Police throughout the area were alerted and the tip that led to the arrest was relayed by Sheriff Julian Broughton, who had seen earlier Friday morning a suspicious looking car on Market Street.

Elizabeth City police were alerted at 9:01 a.m. to be on the lookout and within minutes of receiving the description four officers made the arrest at Bright's Service Station on Hughes Blvd., at 9:10 a.m. where the pair had stopped for gas.

The pair is charged by Perquimans police with armed robbery and placed under arrest on a technical charge by Elizabeth City police for carrying concealed weapons.

Hilliard was armed with a .32 calibre Harrington-Richardson revolver and Ward carried a .32 calibre Smith and Wesson. Both guns were loaded and an extra supply of ammunition was found in the car.

Winfall Fire Insurance Rates Drop

Mayor Elizah White of the Town of Winfall was notified in February of this year by the North Carolina Fire Insurance Rating Bureau that the new Rate Books for Winfall, N. C. with rates established under Grade 9A for properties within the corporate limits and effective February 1, 1970 have been mailed to the interested agents.

Wayne Winslow, Chief of the Winfall Volunteer Fire Department said that due to the establishment of the Winfall Fire Department the insurance rate was lowered.

The Winfall Volunteer Fire Department was organized in 1968. The Fire Department building was actually constructed and paid for by the volunteer firemen working giving benefit suppers and thru contributions from interested persons.

Approximately $5, to $7,000 has been raised by these energetic volunteer firemen. A note burning ceremony was held the first part of this year, when the building was paid for.

Lloyd Ray Morgan was the first chief of the young Winfall Volunteer Fire Department, the second year, George Thomas Roach served as chief, and the Chief for 1970 is Wayne Winslow.

Winslow said to be sure and give the ladies and wives of the department credit, that they helped with all suppers and in anyway they possibly could.

The department has twenty three members they are: Joe Barber, C. D. Barclift, Richard Bryant, Grover Hollowell, Robert Halsey, Floyd Long, E. W. (Dick) Long, Lloyd R. Morgan, William Ray Miller, Ned Nixon, Jr., Ned Nixon, Sr., Thomas Nixon, Bobby Riddick, George T. Roach, Bobby Stallings, Grover Sloop, Charles Smith, Paul Smith, Josiah Smith, D. M. Trueblood, Wayne White, Wayne Winslow and Arland Winslow.

The Volunteer Firemen carry their own insurance, paying it out of their pocket. There is a great deal of cost in maintaining the department. Any contributions will be appreciated. Chief Winslow also said, that anyone wanting an old dwelling destroyed, the department will be glad to do the job, as they receive valuable training when they have a delapidated building to burn.

There will be a Pentecostal Crusade at The Assembly of God Church at 715 West Grubb Street Hertford, nightly at 7:30 p.m.

The Crusade will begin Sunday night April 19 and will last through Sunday April 26. There will be special singing nightly.

Guest speaker will be the Rev. Raymond Tidwell, from Lewiston, N. C.

There will be a Christ Ambassadors Rally, April 18, centered for the youth. Service being conducted by the young People of The Edenton Assembly of God Church. "The Crossbearers Quartet" will be featured in Gospel singing on Saturday night, April 25.

The pastor the Rev. Gary E. Wilson issues a welcome to everyone to attend the Crusade.

Pentecostal Crusade

There will be a Pentecostal Crusade at The Assembly of God Church at 715 West Grubb Street Hertford, nightly at 7:30 p.m.

The Crusade will begin Sunday night April 19 and will last through Sunday April 26. There will be special singing nightly.

Guest speaker will be the Rev. Raymond Tidwell, from Lewiston, N. C.

There will be a Christ Ambassadors Rally, April 18, centered for the youth. Service being conducted by the young People of The Edenton Assembly of God Church. "The Crossbearers Quartet" will be featured in Gospel singing on Saturday night, April 25.

The pastor the Rev. Gary E. Wilson issues a welcome to everyone to attend the Crusade.

Concert At Bagley's Swamp Wesleyan Church

The public is cordially invited to hear good inspirational singing in a Concert presented by the Kernersville Wesleyan College Choir at the Bagley Swamp Wesleyan Church Sunday, April 19, at 7 P. M.

The Choir is under the direction of Professor Gordon E. Miller, who is recognized as one of the best musical directors in the Piedmont Area.

You will be glad you came to hear this group perform.

Rev. W. F. Page is Pastor of the local Church.

Winfall Fire Department Note Burning

SHOWN IN THE ABOVE PHOTO are three Winfall men who have served as Chief of the Winfall Volunteer Fire Department since it was organized, they are George Thomas Roach, Lloyd Ray Morgan and Wayne Winslow. The picture was taken prior to the note burning which took place at a dinner held the early part of this year, when Mr. Joel Hollowell standing next to Roach and Morgan presented the group a note which he held so that the Winfall Fire Department building could be constructed.