

Largest Parade Ever To Be Held In Hertford Saturday

Honored On 80th Birthday

The big parade starts Saturday at 3:30 and there are about 110 units lined up to provide this area with one of the most exciting and interesting such events it has seen in many a moon.

The parade together and here is what it will look like. The list is the line-up and we hope it will help you during the parade for purposes of identification.

As you know however, there are always last-minute changes - plus last-minute deletions and additions, but the parade should come pretty close to lining up this way:

The first section features colonial scenes, antique floats, home makers arts and displays but starts with the Perquimans County Marching Unit.

Hertford Jaycees float will reenact the signing of the state's first deed between George Durant and Chief Kilcoocan.

An early Quaker Church scene featuring George Fox and William Edmundson, sponsored by the Belvidere-Up River Friends.

Jack Caddy portrays North Carolina Governor John Harvey in a float sponsored by the Hertford Rotary Club.

An early circuit-riding Methodist preacher is portrayed by Ed Nixon.
