Attorney General Robert Morgan Speaks At C Of C Banquet

Attorney General Robert Morgan was guest speaker at the annual Banquet of the Perquimans County Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night at the Edenton Grammar School.

W. Nowell, Jr., president of the Chamber, introduced and welcomed those in attendance.

William R. Pinner presented the invocation, which was followed by entertainment by the Variety Pack. Routine skits were heard from the program committee chairmen.

Introduction of the speaker was made by the president. Mr. Nowell expressed appreciation to the members giving him the privilege of being President of the group.

Recognized the retiring officers and commended them on their fine support during their term of office.

Installation of the new officers was conducted by Bill Cox. The new President, T. E. E. White, Jr., in making a few remarks stated, "Those of you attending the Annual Banquet are physically expressing your interest in the future of Perquimans County. It is your responsibility to better acquaint yourself with the activities of the Chamber and other organizations in the county, and help get others involved. The future will be as bright as you make it. The area can be no better than the people living in it."

The dinner was prepared by the Edenton Grammar School P.T.A.

ERIE HASTE, JR. responsibility to better acquaint yourself with the activities of the Chamber and other organizations in the county, and help get others involved. The future will be as bright as you make it. The area can be no better than the people living in it."

Mrs. Earline White Completes Training In Food And Nutrition

Mrs. Earline White, the wife of Jake L. White, Jr., Route 1, Edenton, North Carolina, completed basic training in Food and Nutrition under the supervision of Mrs. M. B. Taylor, Extension Agent.

The program was conducted so that specific objectives and goals are first set for each participating family based on their own needs and circumstances. Mrs. White will direct her instruction toward these ends. As goals are achieved, the homemakers either set new goals and continue in the program or transfer to another available adult education program.

Mrs. White will not be expected to cope with non-related nutrition problems but where these exist, she will refer them to the proper agencies further states Mrs. Taylor.

Leonard Hardy Promoted By Soil Conservation Service

Leonard Hardy, Jr. of Raleigh has been promoted to Supervisory Contract Specialist with the state office of the USDA-Soil Conservation Service. It was announced today by State Conservationist Charles W. Bartlett.

In his new capacity Mr. Hardy will head the Administrative Services Section. He succeeds Wilson B. Morton, who will retire in December after occupying the position since 1967.

Mr. Hardy joined SCS in June, 1965, soon after receiving his B.S. Degree in Agricultural Engineering from A & T State University at Greensboro. Born in Halifax County August 12, 1942, he graduated from Inboarden High School in Enfield.

Mr. Hardy was first assigned to the Edenton Work Unit office as a soil conservationist, and transferred to similar duties in Fayetteville in January, 1968. He remained in Fayetteville until February, 1969, when he was transferred to the SCS State Office in Raleigh as a Budget Analyst, the position he held when he was selected for his current promotion.

He married the former Linda Lee Frazier, and they have two sons.

Cub Scouts Receive Badges In Sparky Fire Dept.

Cub Scouts Mark Pierce, Charlie White, Troy Pierce, Jerry Chappell, Jerry White, and Daryl Morgan of Den 1, Troop 155 and Tommy Harrell of Den 2 were presented membership badges and made fire inspectors in the Sparky Fire Department by C.T. Skinner Jr., Perquimans County Fire Marshal at a recent Cub Pack Meeting.

Cub Scouts Ricky Owens, Earle Byrum, Shelton Skinner, David Roberts, and David Perry of Den 2 had received their badges in October. Den 2 Cubs participated in the Fire Prevention Week Parade in Edenton as the Sparky Fire Department.

The Sparky Fire Department is a fire prevention program sponsored by the National Fire Protection Association to promote fire prevention methods and life safety in homes. Sparky is the well known symbol of a Dalmatian Dog.

In order to become a member of the Sparky Fire Department, the Cubs had to know three causes of fires in homes, explain the why and how of school fire drills, draw a floor plan of their home and explain the fire escape routes out of their home, and distribute fire prevention literature in the neighborhood.

Fire Marshal Skinner complimented all the Cubs on their fire participation in the fire prevention program.

Gov. Scott Will Speak At AADA Annual Banquet

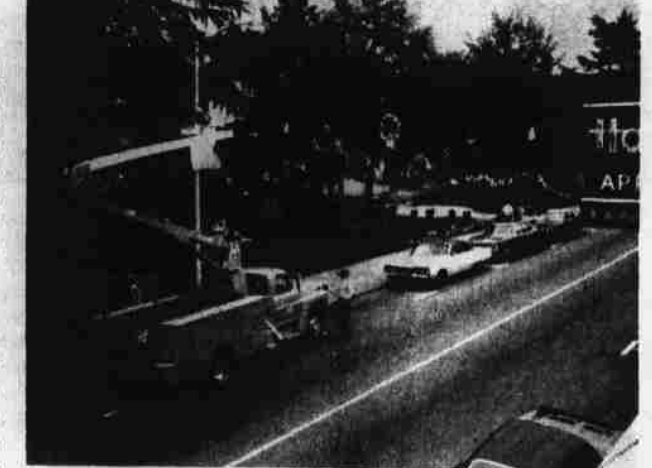

Governor Robert W. Scott will be the keynote speaker when the Albemarle Area Development Association holds its tenth annual banquet at the Edenton Army on December 4th, 1970, at 7:00 p.m. Spokesman for AADA said today, that the Association was indeed fortunate to have Governor Scott for this occasion and at least 750 people from the ten counties of the Albemarle were expected to attend.

Co-Chairman for the event are Robert Moore and Wallace Evans. Governor Scott will be introduced by Dr. S. Bruce Petteway, President of C.O.A. The Chowan High School Band will entertain.

The annual occasion honors the winners of the Community Development Program. Twenty-six communities in the region are competing this year. The AADA Region consist of the counties of Camden, Chowan, Currituck, Dare, Gates, Hyde, Pasquotank, Perquimans, Tyrrell, and Washington.

The public is invited to attend and tickets may be purchased from any of the County Farm Agents of the ten counties.

Perquimans Prepares For Annual Christmas Parade

Preparations are underway for the Annual Christmas Parade scheduled for Friday, December 4.

The Parade, sponsored by the Perquimans County Chamber of Commerce, is expected to be the biggest one in many years.

The Parade will be followed by Mayor Emmett Landing lighting the Christmas Tree on the Courthouse lawn. A Christmas Carol Program will be presented by the Hertford Jaycees, featuring members of area churches at 5:30 p.m.

Cash Prizes To Be Awarded For Best Christmas Decorations

The Perquimans County Chamber of Commerce today announced another part of their continuing effort in the clean-up-fix-up campaign begun in March of 1969. This phase is concerned with the Christmas season, and will consist of two cash prizes to be awarded for the best Christmas decorations in Perquimans County.

The first prize, a $25 cash award, will be presented to the commercial business that does the best job of decorating and cleaning up for the holiday season.

The second prize, also $25, will be awarded to the best cleaned and decorated private dwelling in Perquimans County. A group of judges will be named as soon as possible, and a representative of each township will be named in this group. The decorations will be judged on a basis of neatness, originality, and overall effect.

Chamber president, Joe W. Nowell, Jr., states "It is very important to any area to present an attractive picture to visitors, and the Christmas season is a fitting time for another push in our clean-up-fix-up effort. We have made much progress in this direction since our campaign began. We must continue to work toward a cleaner, more attractive county."

The Perquimans County clean-up-fix-up campaign was started following a visit to Perquimans County by Department of Conservation and Development director, Roy Sowers, through a joint effort of the Perquimans County Chamber of Commerce and the Perquimans County Industrial Development Commission.

BPW Bike Safety Project

The Hertford Business and Professional Women's Club recently completed a bicycle safety campaign among the school children of Perquimans County.

Approximately 2000 brochures on Bicycle Behavior were given to all children in the first through eighth grades in the County. On Saturday, Nov. 21, reflector tape was given to each child who brought his bicycle to the Municipal Building. Seven pieces of tape were put on each of the 80 old bikes brought, thus insuring they would be spotted by automobile drivers at dusk or night. Local boy scouts assisting the BPW members in putting the tape on were Troy Harrison, Jeff Broughton, Mike Goodwin and Lonnie Bunch.
