Chic AND Charming

FAST START for fall is this blithe little body skimmer from Paganne, Ltd. Gene Berk's basic dress in an all-over Florentine print is belted at the waist, has high neck, long sleeves.

FITTED black melton blazer over a dress with a white crepe shirt bodice and tie, and red wool jersey flared skirt belted in black wool jersey are from the Oscar de la Renta Boutique fall collection.

BOLD red/white/navy/grey stripes alternate on the front and back of this Aztec patterned wool knit sweater with navy ribbed sleeves and turtle neck. The slacks, perfectly matched to the dominant navy of the sweater, are yarn dyed in double knit wool with a comfortable elasticized waistline. For fall, both are from Damon International.

A SPILL of gold went into this flamboyant cape, and hot pants by Victor Joris for Cuddlecoot. The black turtle neck sweater, and tank top with leather belt give a layered look.

On Hearing A Bullfrog

(Dedicated to the memory of my beloved friend Trudy Sutton Moore)

Deep silent night, and then a sound-not shrill, But one to make the silence seem more still A sound to make a child cry out in fright, Yet conjures up a picture dimly bright.

A silvery sheen o'er hung with feathery weeds And wavelets lapping slowly at the reeds A place the pure white lily knows A sod where blooms the pink wild rose

Where gentle Fragrance rides a gentle breeze And overshadowing all tall cypress trees.

Perquimans was a peaceful, happy land with river blue tranquil, near at hand, How painful in Nostalgia's misty dawn Yet scenes of long ago still warm the heart.
