Crossroads Of Aging

Unfortunately, The Lost Colony performance honoring Senior Citizens August 4th was rained out, but over 100 elderly braved the bad weather in hope of seeing the drama. Lost Colony officials waited until 9:45 P.M. before cancelling the show. It was only the second night to be rained out this season. Because of the lateness in the season it was not possible to reschedule the performance for the Senior Citizens. It is hoped next year to have a performance to honor Senior Citizens from all over the state.

Bazaar Sales
Plans are being made this month for four bazaar sales to be held this fall at different locations in the region. This will be a cooperative effort of the Program on Aging, Agricultural Extension Agents, members of District Senior Citizen clubs and the aging program of the Economic Improvement Council. You will be hearing more about the sales, as soon as plans are finalized. All Senior Citizens in the ten counties are urged to begin making items in preparation for the sales. Successful bazaar sales were held in May during Senior Citizen Month at the Southgate Mall in Elizabeth City and during the 250th Anniversary Celebration in Edenton in June. Both the public and the senior citizens enjoyed the occasions, as well as providing additional income for the participants. The public, especially the young, were most appreciate of the talents of the elderly.

HAPPINESS
Take a heaping cup of PATIENCE, Add a big heartful of LOVE, Add two handfuls of GENEROSITY, To all of the above; Then blend in a dash of LAUGHTER And some UNDERSTANDING, too; Sprinkle generously with KINDNESS And MEMORIES, of old and new; Add a lot of FAITH and mix well To make it rich and sweet, And enjoy a heaping portion With everyone you meet!

JESSE HELMS: A CITIZEN-SENATOR

"Jesse Helms is not one of your back-slapping, hand-wringing, affable garden variety political office seekers." — Virginian Pilot 7/2/72

A few years back, Jesse Helms was elected President of the Raleigh Rotary Club, the oldest and second largest civic club in North Carolina.

He didn't sit back and glory in it. He set about to challenge the club with a series of new programs — like one to raise money for a boys' home. That year, the club had the highest attendance in its history and won a district award for new members.

That's Jesse Helms — working to get things done. And that's why the Freedoms Foundation gave him two awards, and why the Raleigh Exchange Club gave him its Golden Deeds award, and why the Southern Baptist Convention gave him its national award for Service to Mankind.

All his life, Jesse Helms has worked to make things better than he found them. And that's why we need to send him to the United States Senate.

Under The Shade Of The Old Oak Tree

Family reunions have become extinct in some regions but not so with the GODFREY family of Perquimans County, N.C.

The spacious back lawn of Mrs. A.L. Godfrey, Sr., provided the setting for a great "family gathering" in July of this year.

Approximately TWO HUNDRED family members gathered under the "OLD OAK TREE" which about one hundred years ago stood at the end of the porch of the late Stephen and Sophia Godfrey's homeplace. To this courageous couple were born twelve children (seven sons, Stephen, Abe, Octavius, Alonza, Benjamin, Henry, and John and five daughters, Emma, Lena, Penelope, Almira, and Alice).

The four members of the remaining family were all in attendance. Mrs. Alice Godfrey Tillett of Athens, Georgia, Mrs. Almira Godfrey Layden of Beech Springs, Mrs. John T. Godfrey and Mrs. A. L. Godfrey, Sr., of Perquimans County.

The deceased son, A.L. Godfrey and his wife, Carra Ward Godfrey built a home on the site of the old homeplace and reared nine lovely children, all of whom were present with their families totaling fifty-one. Their only son, A.L. Godfrey, Jr., will keep the old Godfrey homeplace going for many years to come of which we are all very proud.

Five sons and three daughters of the late John T. Godfrey and wife, Mary Russell Godfrey were in attendance with their families totaling thirty-seven.

There were sons and daughters and other relatives of eight of the original twelve children present at this gathering.

Many pleasant memories were recalled under the OLD OAK TREE that day and it was an occasion that will long remain in the hearts of the family of the late Stephen and Sophia Godfrey of Perquimans County.
