

Mrs. Malvin Gordon Scott, III

Jernigan, Scott Are Married

Haygood United Methodist Church was the setting for the marriage of Myra Jane Jernigan to Malvin Gordon Scott, III on Saturday, Dec. 29, 1973 at 5:30 pm.

The bride wore a gown of white organza. The empire bodice with re-embroidered creon lace featured a Victorian neckline with tapered sleeves and a modified A-line skirt. Her gown was highlighted with alecon appliques over the skirt. She wore a shoulder train. Her mantilla was attached to a camelot headpiece.

The bride carried a semi-cascade consisting of white roses and stephanotis. Her maid of honor was Miss Dianne Warwick of Virginia Beach, Va. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Gregory Sutton of Newport News, sister of the groom, and Miss Sue White of Virginia Beach. All attendants wore long gowns of wine velvet with azalea pink backs which fell in a loose drape. They carried nosegays of azalea pink carnations.

Miss Wendy Knickerbocker, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a long dress of white organza trimmed in pale pink. She carried a white basket trimmed with azalea pink carnations.

Scott Watterson, cousin of the bride was the ring bearer.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, J. Preston White of Virginia Beach, Va.

The best man was Mr. Malcolm Willoughby of Hampton, Va. The groomsmen were Mr. Steve Givens of Newport News; Mr. Francis G. Griffin, Jr. of Virginia Beach; and Mr. Donald Tomlinson of Trenton, N.J. The officiating minister was the Rev. Lee H. Beville, pastor of Haygood

+++++ AWARD WINNER AT UNC-G
Fred Chappell, a professor in the Department of English at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, is the 1973 winner of the Sir Walter Raleigh Award for fiction for his novel, "The Gaudy Place." In 1972, Chappell was awarded the Roanoke-Chowan Cup for poetry by the North Carolina Literary and Historical Association. Chappell's other books include two novels, "It is Time, Lord," and "The Inkling." He also has written a book of poems, entitled "The World Between the Eyes."

White, Chappell Are United

Miss Dona Lee White and Ernest Milton Chappell were united in a double-ring ceremony on Dec. 22 at 2 p.m. at Epworth United Methodist Church. Amidst a setting of candelabras, white mums, and ferns, which were a memorial to the bride's late father, the Rev. Rick Pinner officiated.

Mrs. Florence Nowell provided the wedding, and Wayne White, brother of the bride, sang.

Given in marriage by her brother, Billy S. White, the bride wore a floor length gown of nylon with wide lace overlay. The gown was styled with an empire waistline and A-line skirt. Her detachable train was also of nylon trimmed in matching lace. The fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a lace tiara. Her bridal bouquet consisted of white daisies and carnations.

Miss Diane Griffin of Merry Hill, N.C., cousin of the bride, served as the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Mildred Chappell, sister of the groom; and Miss Beth Winslow, cousin of the groom. The bridesmaids wore floor length A-line dresses featuring long Greek sleeves trimmed in matching braid. The maid of honor's gown was identical in style, but was orange. Each attendant carried a long-stemmed gold mum with green streamers.

David Ayscue, from Goldsboro, cousin of the groom, served as the best man.

Ushers were Donald Ayscue of Hertford, and Carl McCoy of Goldsboro, N.C.

Mrs. William T. Mann, sister of the bride, acted as the mistress of ceremony.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. White chose a street length mint green polyester dress trimmed in lace. She wore matching accessories and a white mum corsage.

The groom's mother wore a street length rose polyester dress with black accessories. She also wore a white mum corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church social hall.

For a wedding trip to Nags Head, N.C., the bride changed into a blue and white knitted dress and wore the flowers lifted from her bouquet.

The couple will reside in Winfall, N.C.

Miss White is a senior at Perquimans County High School and is employed by the Little Mint in Hertford.

Mr. Chappell is a graduate of Perquimans High and is employed at the Hertford Ice Plant.

Prior to the wedding, the bride was entertained at a shower given in her honor by Mrs. William T. Mann, Mrs. James Griffin, Mrs. Lloyd Byrum, Mrs. C. D. Barclift, and Mrs. Clinton Winslow. The rehearsal party was given by the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Chappell.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of chantilly lace and peau de Sole with a empire waist. The bodice of chantilly lace featured a V shape neckline and long fitted sleeves which were finished at the hand with a ruffle. The A line skirt of peau de sole was highlighted by rows of chantilly lace and the hemline was banded with wide chantilly lace. The full length train of peau de sole edged with chantilly lace was attached to the empire waist with a ruffle of chantilly lace. Her veil of bridal illusion was attached to a cluster of chantilly lace flowers and pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with a white cymbidium orchid. The bride's only ornament was a pearl necklace, a gift of her late grandmother, Mrs. Joseph

Carroll Byrum, Edenton, N.C.

Mrs. Roy Cartwright, Elizabeth City was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Cathie Byrum, sister of the bride, and Miss Diane Winslow of Hertford, N.C. The Junior Bridesmaids were Miss Kathy Harrell of Gatesville, N.C. and Miss Mindy Moore of Silver Springs, Md.

The honor attendant wore a formal gown fashioned as the brides except with short sleeves. The bodice was green velvet with a gold brocade skirt with raised designs in sequins. She carried a nosegay of red and white carnations with green velvet ribbon streamers to match the bodice of the dress.

The bridesmaids and junior bridesmaids wore dresses styled as the honor attendant. Their bodices were red velvet with the gold brocade skirts and carried nosegays of red and white carnations with red velvet ribbon streamers to match the bodice of their dresses. All attendants wore a small hairpiece of holly with red velvet ribbon bows and streamers, and also cross necklaces which was a gift from the bride.

Miss Michelle McClenny, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McClenny, Elizabeth City was flower girl. She wore a chantilly lace and peau de sole dress with a veil of illusion at tached to a chantilly headpiece. Her basket was filled with red carnations and small white mums.

Master Hiller Fahey Byrum, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Byrum, Edenton was ring bearer and wore a red velvet suit which matched the attendants dresses.

Roy Cartwright of Elizabeth City was best man. Ushers were Paul Matthew Byrum, brother of the bride, Hertford, Kenny Stallings, Christmas Belvidere; Kermit Copeland, Elizabeth City; and Steve Wheeler, Portsmouth, Va.

Honorary bridesmaids were Miss Shelia Byrum, Edenton, N.C.; Miss Joan Cohoon and Miss Deborah Saunders of Hertford, N.C. They wore colorful formal dresses, holly corsages and necklaces was a gift from the bride.

Mrs. Charles Thomas Rogerson, Jr. and Mrs. Willard Copeland of Hertford were mistresses of ceremony.

For her daughters wedding, Mrs. Byrum chose a floor length gown of pink double knit with long chiffon sleeves trimmed in pearl beading and wore a cymbidium orchid.

Mrs. Markham selected a floor length long sleeve gown of mint green with a wide cummerbund edged in silver sequins and a cymbidium corsage.

Mrs. Jordan, grandmother of the groom, wore a street length royal blue polyester dress trimmed in matching sequins and a white carnation corsage.

For a wedding trip to unannounced points the bride changed to a navy dress with a white lace collar, a matching cape and navy and red accessories and the cymbidium orchid lifted from her Bible. The couple will live at 907
