

CHRISTMAS IN APRIL—The town of Hertford purchased $3,757 worth of natural Christmas decorations for a savings of $911. In the past the town has rented Christmas decorations. These will belong to the town. They were purchased from Vaughan's Inc. with the seller being Harrill Decorating Co. According to Mayor Bill Cox, these decorations will be used for four years or more. Purchased were 21 trees and six long garlands. The natural scheme will tie in with the nation's 200th birthday.

Time To Give Shots

All county dog owners are reminded that it is time for rabies vaccinations. The law requires every dog owner in North Carolina to have his or her dog vaccinated against rabies. This should be done to save yourself possible court action. The dog warden-rabies inspector has the authority to cite into court anyone not complying with this law.

W. Ray White, the dog warden-rabies inspector for Perquimans County has set up a partial schedule for vaccinations. The vaccination price is $1.50. The completion of the schedule will appear at a future date in The Perquimans Weekly.

Firm To Open

Gregory Poole Equipment Company, the Caterpillar Tractor dealer for Eastern North Carolina, announces plans for the establishment of a branch parts and service facility in Edenton.

The half-million dollar masonry and steel structure will be built on a site at the Edenton Airport on Midway Road. Initially, a temporary building will be built with operations scheduled to begin within 60 days.

The permanent structure will be approximately 18,500 square feet in size and will employ 40 to 50 persons when in full operation. Construction is due to begin as soon as steel and other building materials are available and completion is anticipated in early 1974.

Several local persons have been hired and are training in other Gregory Poole operations in preparation for the Edenton opening.

Gregory Poole Equipment Company operates stores in Raleigh, Washington and Wilmington.

"THE TOUCH OF SATAN" MAKES ROSEMARY'S BABY LOOK LIKE A SUNDAY SCHOOL PUPPET!

This is not "The Exorcist" it is however.....

RATED P.G.

A STORY OF EXORCISM!

Exorcism has fascinated the world for centuries. Today, it captures the imagination of millions with its dynamic exploration of evil and the occult. Few films of the supernatural better portray a more compelling story of witchcraft, possession and devil worship with cinematic quality, suspense and force than "THE TOUCH OF SATAN", a story of erotic exorcism exploding in the real world of contemporary mid-America!

The Atlanta Journal calls "THE TOUCH OF SATAN"..."rich and chilling...entertaining...dramatic...exemplary...beautifully photographed...". Berle's Los Angeles Magazine comments that SATAN is "...a believable and engrossing film...performances were excellent". L.A. Free Press compared SATAN to the classic "ROSEMARY'S BABY"!
