illegal possession of liquor, was on the stand in Perquimans Recorders' Court. The defendant was explaining that the liquor at his house had been placed there by some one else. On the stand he testified that while he was in jail awaiting trial the owner of the liquor sent him word that if he would not mention her name in court she would employ a lawyer for him. "And, said the defendant, "I told the fellow to tell her that I didn't want no lawyer because I was going to tell the truth".

"RECKLESS WALKING": "Where are you going?" The question was asked of a certain man charged with being drunk on the street. "I am going to court," he answered, "where I am to be tried for reckless walking!"

Saluting the many Tar Heel who "devote much of their time to voluntary activities," Governor James E. Holshouser, Jr., has proclaimed the week of April 21-27 as "Volunteer Week in North Carolina."

organized throughout the State. "It is my desire...to recognize and say "thank you" to all of these citizens... on behalf of the State of North Carolina," Holshouser said.

"These citizens deserve recognition and appreciation for their efforts to aid their fellow man," the Governor wrote.

"The goal of all of these citizens is to improve the quality of life for all of the people of North Carolina," he continued. "It is essential and necessary that the people of North Carolina become aware of their efforts."

Elect Jody

I, Jody Dail, am a candidate for the office of Perquimans County Sheriff. I believe Perquimans County is ready for a change and if elected, I pledge to give you better law enforcement service. I am willing and ready to serve the people of Perquimans County. I was in law enforcement for 3 years and attended a number of law enforcement schools; therefore, I am qualified to serve you. When you go to the polls May 7, I am asking for your vote and support.
