Family Reunion

On July 14, the descendants of Fletcher S. Dail held a family reunion at the home of his great-granddaughter, Bonnie Rae Dail White in Hertford. In all, Fletcher's descendants and their families amount to some over 200. Of this number, 87 attended the first reunion.

At the age of 21, Fletcher married Mary Jane Hudson of Chowan County. By this marriage, he had only one daughter, Ida Isabelle. A few weeks after her birth, her mother died. Ida was raised by her uncle, William Hudson and wife.

In 1880, at the age of 25, Fletcher again married, this time to Lydia Ann Mansfield of Perquimans Co. By this marriage, he had seven children, four sons, Ira, Miles Edward, Alonzo Lee, and Matthew Boney; three daughters, Celia Ann, Sarah Penelope and Lenora. A daughter, Celia, died at age 16 and a son, Alonzo, at age 10 just a few days apart in 1900 as the result of typhoid fever. All of the other children lived to be grandparents and some to be great-grandparents. At this time, he has two children living, a daughter, Lenora and a son, Matthew. Matthew's wife, Isa

Mae attended as did Miles widow, Ruth who at age 85 is the oldest living relative and still an active "young" person.

A copy of Fletcher Dail's Family Tree was given to each family present. This chronological study was compiled by Louise Jordan Dail.

If Fletcher were living today, he would be both proud and amazed at his many descendants. He would be proud to know that so many of them were still living in the area of his choice.
