Mrs. William Lowder

Married Recently

The marriage of Miss Deborah Gay McDaniel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenwood Lee Dail of Sandston, Va. to William Dwight Lowder, son of the Rev. and Mrs. William James Lowder of Sandston, Va. was solemnized June 20 at 7 p.m. in Sandston Baptist Church. The Rev. William James Lowder performed the double ring ceremony in a French candlelight setting of ivy. Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Mary E. Gooch, the church organist. Given in marriage by her step-father, the bride wore a gown designed and made by her mother of white Rosemary satin brocade. The empire bodice was styled with a Victorian neckline trimmed with inserted white satin ribbon and pearl buttons, full sleeves with French cuffs and softly gathered skirt. Her floor length veil was attached to a Juliet cap trimmed with white satin ribbon. She carried a Bride's Bible covered with lace, white baby orchids and baby's breath, and long satin streamers. Her only ornament was a cross and pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. Miss Deborah Leigh Renick of Sandston, Va. was maid of honor. She wore a navy-blue dotted swiss over bridal taffeta with an empire waist trimmed with white and blue daisies, matching picture hat trimmed in daisies. She carried a nosegay of white daisies, navy and light blue baby's breath and light blue streamers. Bridesmaids were Miss Pamela McDaniel, cousin of the bride and Miss Lynn Venable both from Newport News, Va., Miss Kathy Armstrong of Quinton, Va., Miss Shelly Lin Mulik, cousin of the bride of Sandston, Va. Junior bridesmaid was Miss Rachel Ann Dail, sister of the bride. Their dresses were identical to the honor attendants except in light-blue and carried identical nosegays. Master Brian Lee Dail was ring-bearer. The groom chose as his best man, a brother, Curtis Lowder of Sandston, Va. Ushers were Walter Smith, Richard Hergen, both of Sandston, Va. and Thomas Lowder, brother of the groom from Bluefield, West Va.

Mrs. Vernon Moore was mistress of ceremony.

Mother of the bride was attired in a full length chiffon formal of lilac trimmed with purple velvet ribbon, small purple velvet buttons and long full sleeves. Her accessories were pale yellow. Mother of the groom chose a full length crepe formal in apricot trimmed with pearls, long tapered sleeves and matching accessories. A reception followed the ceremony in the Boshert-Gray fellowship building of the church.

The couple are making their home in Shawnee, Oklahoma, where the groom will be attending Oklahoma Baptist University. The bride is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rennie Dail of Route 1, Hertford and the great-granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Mansfield also of Rt. 1.

Mrs. W. R. Landing

Married Saturday

Miss Virginia Lee Copeland and Willis Robert Landing were married Saturday, July 20, in an afternoon ceremony performed by Rev. Daniel M. Korbes at Center Hill Methodist Church. Jakie Boyce played contemporary and classical selections to complement the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold H. Copeland of Belvidere. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Nehemiah Bunch and the late Mr. William D. Landing of Tyner.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her empire style, floor-length gown of candlelight crepe featured a Venice lace bodice with short sleeves. She wore a headpiece of daisies and baby's breath with ribbon trim and her bouquet was yellow daisies and white rosebuds.

The couple will reside in Eula Mae Stallings, the maid of honor, wore a floor-length empire style gown of green crepe. Her headpiece was matching ribbon bow with streamers. She carried a long-stemmed yellow rosebud with baby's breath.

The best man was Nehemiah Bunch, the groom's stepfather. Serving as ushers were Virgil Copeland, the bride's brother and James Hassell, Faye Stallings the bride's aunt directed the wedding.

Among the honored guests was the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Asbell. Out of towners included friends and relatives of the couple.

The bride is a graduate of the associate nursing program at College of the Albemarle and is employed by Bertie Memorial Hospital in Windsor. The groom is an electrician's assistant in Plymouth.

The couple will reside in Windsor.
