Workshop Held

GREENVILLE - Sixty-four public health aides from 23 North Carolina health departments participated in a workshop on communication and interviewing skills at East Carolina University recently.

The workshop was sponsored by the ECU Human Resource Training Institute and the Pitt County Health Department. It consisted of two sections: instruction by Human Resources personnel and practicing of communication skills by the participants in small group settings.

According to Patricia Garton of the ECU Institute, the workshop was developed as a result of a survey of public health aides and nurse supervisors concerning their specific training needs.

All workshop events were held in the new ECU Regional Development Institute buildings.

Participating from the Pasquotank, Perquimans, Camden and Chowan District Health Department, Elizabeth City were Hazel Alexander, Doris Etheridge, Norma Hall and Celea Jones.
