Could it be that events in the Middle East are shaping up for what the Bible calls "Har-Magedon" or "Armageddon"? Rev. 16:14,16). Many people might be led to reach such a conclusion because the name "Har-Magedon," meaning "Mountain of Megiddo," can be linked to the Middle East. Some nineteen miles southeast of modern Haifa in the state of Israel lie the ruins of ancient egiddo. Over a period spanning more than three illenniums the area around Megiddo has been the scene of many defensive battles.

The war foretold to be waged at this symbolic "Hardageddon" is not a conflict between nations. It is designated in the Scriptures as the "war of the great day of God the Almighty." (Rev. 16:14). The apostle John symbolically described the forces that the nations will be confronting: "I saw the heaven opened, and, look! a white horse. And the one seated upon it is called Faithful and True, and he judges and carries on war in righteousness . . . Also, the armies that were in heaven were following him . . . And out of his mouth there protrudes a sharp long sword, that he may strike the nations with it, and he will shepherd them with a rod of iron. He treads too the winepress of the anger of the wrath of God the Almighty." (Rev. 19:11-15). So the nations will suffer defeat at the hands of the "King of kings and Lord of lords," Jesus Christ, and powerful angelic forces. - Rev. 19:16.

The Bible reveals that the "war of the great day of God the Almighty" is part of a "great tribulation" to come upon the entire human system of things. (Rev. 7:1-3, 14). The survivors of that "great tribulation," for example, are described as a numberless "great crowd," "out of ALL NATIONS AND TRIBES AND PEOPLES AND TONGUES." (Rev. 7:9). Accordingly, the "great tribulation" spoken of in the Bible must embrace much more than just the Middle East. It will encircle the globe. But might an upheaval in the Middle East furnish the "spark" for the "great tribulation" to begin? The Bible es not refer to any specific location in the Middle East or ewhere as the place for that event to start. The details of w matters will work out remain to be seen.

We should not go beyond what a particular prophecy actually says. Bible prophecies cannot be understood in FULL detail until the events to which they point take place. So we do well not to speculate as to what certain happenings in the Middle East or elsewhere may or may not mean. Surely it is far wiser to live daily in expectation of God's great day. This is the only course that will result in survival. lesus Christ admonished his followers to remain awake to the certain fulfillment of his prophetic words.

He urged: "Pay attention to yourselves that your hearts never become weighed down with overeating and heavy drinking and anxieties of life, and suddenly that day be instantly upon you as a snare. For it will come in upon all those dwelling upon the face of all the earth (not merely the Middle East). Keep awake, then, all the time making supplication that you may succeed in escaping all these things that are destined to occur, and in standing before the Son of man." - Luke 21:34-36.

Take time to consider what the Bible really has to say. Exercise care not to draw unwarranted conclusions from the changeable trends in world affairs, whether they relate to the Middle East or not. Concentrate on the truly important things-living in harmony with the prophetic word, applying the Bible's counsel in your life.

PERDUE MEANS PROGRESS

In 1920 Arthur Perdue went into business with 200 white leghorns. And his wife, in early Twenties photo, helped feed the flock and gather eggs.

Perdue has made great strides in the chicken business since the above picture was taken in 1920. Perdue has grown from sales of $33,000,000 in 1968 to sales of over $143,000,000 in 1974. That is an increase of 331 %.

Perdue has also grown from 43,000,000 broilers produced annually in 1968 to 69,700,000 produced in 1974. This represents a 61.7% increase in broiler production.

As you can see Perdue is continuing to make great strides in the chicken business. Perdue is moving ahead in their new North Carolina operation. Perdue will have 23 million dollars invested when all company projects are completed in North Carolina.

Perdue now has 108 houses committed to them in the Northeastern North Carolina area. But Perdue needs 400 more houses built in order to meet the company's goals.

So, wouldn't you invest in a business that carries a guarantee? That's a $48,000 guarantee over the next 6 years, and that's just the beginning. Diversify your present farming operation and take the gamble out of farming. Move with the company on the move in Northeastern North Carolina.
