

Reid named scoring champ

Teton Reid, star forward for the Bucks, capped a fine basketball season by edging George Long of the Nuggets for the Midget scoring title. Both had trailed Ronnie Ferebee of the Royals all year, but Ferebee did not play in the last game, enabling Reid to overtake him. Only one point separated Reid and Long, as they averaged 12.6 and 12.5 respectively. Ferebee finished with an 11.6 average.

In the category of offense, the Devils finished with a 31.3 average. They also led in defense, allowing an outstanding 19.4 points per game. In the final standings, the Devils finished first with the other three teams tied for second.

Recreation Happenings

By BILLY WOOTEN

Midget Basketball ended last week. Congratulations to all the boys and coaches on a good season. The possibility of having an All-Star team is good, but a formal announcement will not be made until next week.

Girls basketball starts this week with the opening games in Edenton on Saturday morning. Games will be held at the Armory on Broad St. and at the Union School in Winfall. Come out and support the girls. Adult basketball is going real well.

Games are played at the Union School on Monday and Wednesday nights starting at 7 p.m.

Plans for the summer are almost completed, and activities will be offered for all ages throughout the summer. Anyone who has ideas or suggestions on possible programs during the summer months are welcome to stop by the Recreation Building on Grubb Street and talk with me concerning them. See you next week.

Midget season completed

The Midget Basketball Season ended Saturday morning with the Devils continuing their winning ways, and the Nuggets downing the Royals, thus creating a three-way tie for second place.

The Nuggets were led by George Long's 16 points in their victory over the Royals, who were playing without their two leading scorers. Brian Baker had eight, and five others, John Gallop, Tim Bryant, Washington Lyons, Stuart White, and Jeff Modlin, each scored for the Nuggets.

In the second game, the Devils downed the Bucks, 34-24. Eric Boyce and Richard Thach led the Devils with 13 and 11 points, with Calvin Hardy adding six. For the Bucks, Teton Reid swished 14 points and Rodney Gordon had six. The Bucks' failure to hit foul shots, 5 of 23, which would have kept the game close, cost them the ballgame.

A supper tonight at Hertford Grammar School will honor all four teams, their coaches and the league officials.

Coaches have been Lloyd Evans, Carlyle Sawyer, Ban Etheridge, Bruce Smith, Ray Lassiter, Phil Woodell, and Billy Wooten.

League officials were Rodney Lassiter, Gary Stubbins, Chris Boyce and Jim Underwood.

Schedule released

The Girls' Basketball League, sponsored by the Perquimans Recreation Department, will begin play this Saturday. The league, which was formed in conjunction with the Edenton-Chowan Recreation Department, will play an eight-game schedule with part of the games being in Edenton and part at the Perquimans Union School in Winfall.

Farmers to organize

RALEIGH - The first formal attempt to organize North Carolina farmers in support of the National Agricultural Movement will take place on the final day of the Southern Farm Show Feb. 4 at the N.C. State Fair Grounds here.

Ron Taylor, member of the N.C. General Assembly, vice-president of Taylor Tobacco Enterprises, Inc., but first and most important, a farmer himself, is spearheading the meeting to begin at 10 a.m. in Dorton Arena.

"We are asking farmers from every county to attend this important gathering," says Taylor, "so that we can establish a State headquarters, and let each county select a delegate and alternate for North Carolina's representation to the American Agricultural Movement. If we (N.C.) don't support the Movement, they won't support the National Tobacco Program. Forty-one other states have already organized and North Carolina is strongly dependent on agriculture, particularly tobacco, and I think it's time we joined other states in establishing support of the Movement."

According to Taylor, there is already an "unofficial organization" working for the Movement in many N.C. counties, but "now we're going to bring them together and make it official. In addition, we hope to establish a communications network from the state headquarters back to each county and also feed information to and from the National Office. J.C. Galloway of Greenville and Garland Williamson of Whiteville are two farmers who have been actively involved and will be representing North Carolina to the National Office of the American Agricultural Movement."

N.C. Commissioner of Agriculture, Jim Graham, who hopes to attend the meeting offers his support. "I am sincerely sympathetic with the American Agricultural Movement," says Graham, "because farmers are in financial trouble. This organization, through demonstrations here and across the country, is attempting to bring to the attention of the American people the gravity of the farmer's plight." The Southern Farm Show, a major agricultural exposition, at the State Fair Grounds Feb. 2-3-4, is open to anyone in farming and agribusiness.

Credit management meeting planned

Credit Management is one of the major decisions farmers make. On Feb. 2, Dr. Hugh Linder, Extension Economist, N.C. State University will discuss principle of credit management that will aid farmers in making proper credit management decisions.

The meeting will start at 7:30 p.m.

The wise use of credit provides a way for growth and success. Wrong decisions can cause hardships and failure. Farmers in Chowan, Perquimans and Pasquotank Counties are invited to attend according to Charles E. Hammond, Extension Area Management-Marketing Specialist.

The meeting will be held at the Perquimans County Office Building in Hertford.
