QUENTS: The board of town commissioners in regular session at the clerk's office Monday night decided to call a special meeting of the board to open up the books and go through all delinquent taxes with an eye to collecting them. It was the opinion of Town Attorney Charles Johnson that there are taxes on the books which some of the incumbent members of the board do not even know about. It was further shown that the town can buy in houses for delinquent taxes and rent them out to collect the back taxes. "This procedure," it was said, "may serve to hustle up some of the delinquent taxpayers." W.G. Newby is Hertford's town clerk.

It was the largest convention of its kind ever held in a hotel in North Carolina with 1,157 club members from North Carolina attending. Beta Clubs throughout North Carolina are composed of outstanding students, honor students, so to speak; those making a high average in all high school studies. Among those who attended from Hertford were Misses Ruth Hollowell, Maewood Pierce, Bill Cox, Billy Blanchard, Clarke Stokes, Cedric Moore, Harrell Johnson, Durwood Reed, Zack Harris, and Miss Esther Jennings, member of the Perquimans High School faculty.

NAMED 1978 YOUNG CAREERIST - Kay Winslow, Home Health Nurse with the Pasquotank-Perquimans-Chowan-Camden District Health Department, has been named 1978 Young Careerist by the Hertford BPW Club. Mrs. Winslow works in Perquimans County and will represent the local club in the district Young Careerist program on April 30.

BPW Club selects Young Careerist

Kay Winslow of Rt. 1, Hertford has been selected as 1978 Young Careerist by the Hertford Business and Professional Women's (BPW) Club.

Mrs. Winslow is a Home Health Nurse with the Pasquotank-Perquimans-Chowan-Camden District Health Department. She is working in Perquimans County.

A registered nurse, Mrs. Winslow is a graduate of College of the Albemarle in Elizabeth City where she received her associate degree in nursing. She worked as a staff nurse at Chowan Hospital prior to joining the public health field in May 1976. She started in the Elizabeth City office and was later transferred to Perquimans County.

As a Home Health Nurse, Mrs. Winslow's duties include visiting essentially homebound people who have been referred by doctors to the department. Her responsibilities include supervision and instructions for the patients such as information on diets, physical therapy, insulin usage, etc.

Mrs. Winslow explained that she had a special interest in public health nursing as a result of the public health part of the curriculum in the COA nursing program. She explained that she found that area so enjoyable that she hoped to become involved in public health nursing.

Mrs. Winslow explained that she considers her profession to be extremely rewarding. One recent activity she has initiated with her patients has been creating children's booklets in their homes to be used in the department's clinic setting. Since no occupational education therapist is able to work with the homebound patients, this is one activity that has been started. She explained that the patient's find it rewarding.

In addition to her career involvements, Mrs. Winslow is also a mother and wife. She is married to Ray Winslow. The couple has one son, Clint. They attend the First United Methodist Church of Hertford where she is a Sunday School teacher.

As Young Careerist for the Hertford BPW Club, Mrs. Winslow will now represent the local club in the district Young Careerist program. The District XI meeting of the N.C. Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs will be held April 30 in Perquimans County, hosted by the Hertford club.

MOA to sponsor tour

The Guild of Museum Friends will sponsor a tour of the Valentine Museum and the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts on April 13.

The bus will leave the Museum of the Albemarle at 7 a.m. and arrive at the Valentine in Richmond, Va. at approximately 10:15 a.m. A tour of the site will include the viewing of decorative arts, porcelain, historical, landscape and genre paintings.

Folk art, manuscripts, prints, silver, glass and costumes will also be part of the tour. After leaving the Valentine, the group will go to the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts for lunch at the cafeteria on the premises.

A tour of the Museum of Fine Arts will follow. It will include a special exhibition on Southern Virginia Furnishings. The bus will leave at 4 p.m. and arrive back at the Museum of the Albemarle at 7:15 p.m. Tickets are $10 for the entire day, not including lunch. Reservations may be made by calling the Museum of the Albemarle at 335-1453.

GARLIC HELP
When a recipe calls for one clove of garlic, are you supposed to use the whole bulb or one of the individual pieces? Extension home economists explain that the bulb is the whole garlic; the individual pieces, which separate easily, are the cloves - and that's what you use when the recipe calls for one clove garlic.

REHEARSE EASTER ORATORIO - Members of College of the Albemarle's Chorale, music students and area vocalists are busily engaged in rehearsals this week for the college's Lyceum presentation of J.S. Bach's "The Passion of Our Lord According to St. John," which will be sung on Palm Sunday (March 19) at 3:30 p.m. at the First United Methodist Church in Elizabeth City. The well-known oratorio will be conducted by Dr. Clifford E. Bair, professor emeritus, with accompaniment provided by instrumentalists from the music department at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. The performance is sponsored by the COA-Community Lyceum and precedes the 1977-78 series' final event on April 7, a presentation of "The Fourposter," by Stage Down Under from the Norfolk Theatre Center at Scope. Shown at the rehearsal in the picture above are (standing) Danny Meads, music teacher in the Perquimans County school system, and (seated at left) Billy Wooten of Hertford. (COA photo)
