SMOKES, DRINKS, GASOLINE GOING UP: DEFENSE TAXES HAVE BECOME EFFECTIVE: Fifteen-cent cigarettes are fifteen cents straight — no more at two for a quarter. Ten-cent beer is on the way out. So are ten-cent packages of cigarettes. Theatre tickets are now twenty-five cents and three cents tax added. Gasoline is a half cent higher than it was last Sunday night. The new National Defense Tax made itself felt in Hertford early Monday, July 1, at about the same time the bill collectors began to arrive.

A thunder-bolt of a tip!
Direct-hit lightning bolts can be a hair-raising experience. It'll straighten out your latest permanent, for sure!
So, beware of such summer hazards. When storms charged with electrical thunder bolts race across the sky, take cover. Stay inside and away from open windows, doors, and large metal fixtures. Refrain from using electrical appliances.
Unplug tv's. Use the telephone but in emergencies. Finally, if caught outdoors, avoid standing under tall or solitary trees. Instead, kneel with hands on knees and offer up a heartfelt prayer! Then, see us for headache relief!

State department plans meetings

RALEIGH — The North Carolina Department of Commerce, with help from state, local and federal agencies, will sponsor two conferences on August 1, and August 8, to bring state buyers and suppliers together to discuss business opportunities.
The conferences will show new and existing manufacturers the products available from North Carolina suppliers, according to Commerce Secretary D.M. "Lauch" Faircloth. "We want to encourage our industries to buy North Carolina products and services whenever it is economically possible," said Faircloth.
The buyers/suppliers meeting will be the first held in the state in over two years. The last such gathering attracted 150 participants, and Thomas Broughton, Director of the Business Assistance Division, says the Department expects double that number this year. The Department is mailing invitations to over 2,000 suppliers and expects commitments from over 50 major manufacturers.

The purpose is to acquaint the state's new industries with goods and products available in North Carolina as well as to bring existing manufacturers up to date on new products made in North Carolina.
The August 1 seminar will be held at Scott Pavilion at the State Fairgrounds in Raleigh, 1025 Blue Ridge Road. The August 8 conference will be held at the Benton Convention center in Downtown Winston-Salem. The conferences begin at 8 a.m. and conclude at 4 p.m. Interested businesses and industries should contact David Hinton, Project Coordinator, at the Department of Commerce, 430 N. Salisbury St., Raleigh, N.C. 27611, or telephone (919) 733-7980.

Matthews; The Only Investment Guide You'll Ever Need in memory of Frank Nixon; and The Salt Book in memory of Joseph P. White.

SPOTLIGHT ON MAGAZINES
Books aren't all the library has to offer. A wide variety of magazines with important and interesting articles may also be found there. The following is just a highlight of a few.

"Academy Awards of All Time" is in the July-August 1978 Saturday Evening Post.

"Stars Fatal Flaws: Astrology Disproved" is in the July 1978 Science Digest.

"What's Happening to the American Family," a survey of attitudes and problems, can be found in the June 1978 issue of Better Homes and Gardens.

An excerpt from James Michener's new novel, Chesapeake, appears in this month's issue of Ladies Home Journal.

"Enhanced Radiation Weapons" examines the neutron bomb and plays a war game as it might be used in the May 1978 issue of Scientific American.

Air conditioners are rated by brand in the Consumers' Research Magazine, June 1978. Exterior White House Paints are compared in the July 1978 issue of that magazine.

And, "Frog Farming and Its Big Money Secrets" are revealed in The Mother Earth News, July-August 1978. See the accompanying up-close look below on this back to the land magazine.

THE MOTHER EARTH NEWS
The Mother Earth News is a unique magazine published in Hendersonville, NC. Begun about five years ago, it is a cross between Popular Mechanics, Organic Gardening and Rolling Stone with a wide range of articles and features plus advertisements for things you can't buy anywhere else. It is aimed at an audience of ecology minded back to the land types, hard working hippies, and get rich quick dreamers. This month's issue tells you how to make money as a livestock show photographer, how to play the harmonica, how to guide a solar cooker, how to make vegetarian sandwiches, how to set up a mail order business, and so help me...how to make cow manure without a cow for all you organic gardeners.

The advertisements run to heavy hardware and natural products, everything from wood stoves, log splitters, vegetable dryers, chimney sweeping kits, and water distillers to mega-vitamins and natural soaps. There is also an interesting section each issue listing mail order brides and grooms. If you are a non-smoking, light-drinking woman who likes fishing, dog mushing and is interested in personal growth, you can write to Mike Cutter in Valdez, Alaska, just one such listing in this section.

This is one of the best magazines published in the United States and is now being indexed by Reader's Guide which only chooses 60 magazines from all those printed in the nation. It's a youth-oriented magazine that sees the wisdom of our grandfathers and the way they lived. Try it, you'll like it. And you can find it, and much more, at the Perquimans County Library.

BRINGS IN FIRST COTTON BLOOM FOR THIRD CONSECUTIVE YEAR: For the third consecutive year, Claude Williams, who lives on Route 3, has brought in to the office of The Perquimans Weekly the season's first cotton bloom.

FOURTH FALLS ON REGULAR HOLIDAY: The Fourth of July came at an inconvenient time for most employees; the personnel of Hertford's largest business houses were already enjoying a regular half-holiday on Thursdays.

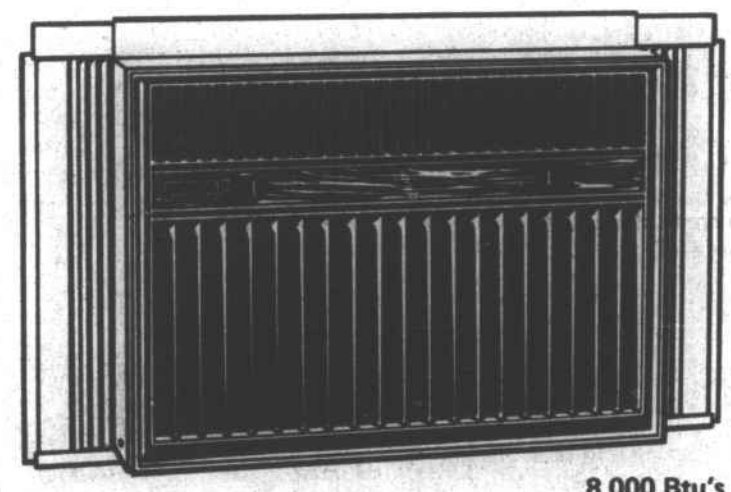

MONTGOMERY-HINTON: The marriage of Miss Mildred Hinton and Wesley Lee Montgomery was solemnized Saturday, June 29, at the home of the Rev. R.F. Munns, at Hertford. Those present were the bride's mother, Mrs. Dora Hinton; Miss Elizabeth Layden and Cecil Perry. After a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery will be at home in Washington, D.C.

WEST HERTFORD CLUB HAS GARDEN PARTY: The Hertford Home and Garden Club entertained its members and a number of visitors at the home of Mrs. B.T. Wood Friday afternoon. The hostesses were Mrs. B.T. Wood, Mrs. Wilson Reed, Mrs. George Fields, Mrs. Regional Tucker.

Those present included Mrs. B.T. Wood, Miss Helen Gaither, Miss Frances Maness, Mrs. R.L. Knowles, Mrs. Annie Chalk, Mrs. Harry Bond, Mrs. E.A. Goodwin, Mrs. Carlton Cannon, Mrs. Charles Harrell, Mrs. Ernest Reed, Miss Mildred Reed, Mrs. J.S. McNider, Mrs. Norman Elliott, Mrs.

ECSU to hold orientations

The weekend of July 7-8 marks the first of two Summer Orientation Programs for all new students accepted for admission to Elizabeth City State University. The second session is set for the weekend of July 14-15. Students unable to take advantage of the early programs will be involved in late orientation, August 21-22.

According to Mrs. Olive R. Wilson, Director of the ECSU Guidance and Counseling Center, over 570 invitations have already been mailed to new students. The new orientation format is designed to provide "much more individualized attention" for the new students. "The early orientation sessions will allow us more time to evaluate test results, and enable us to more adequately place students," Mrs. Wilson indicated.

From 12:45 p.m. on Friday through 5 p.m. Saturday the new ECSU students will meet university officials, take a series of placement tests and chat with students and organizational leaders. A variety of social and recreational activities are scheduled.
