Urges observance of Constitution Week

TO THE EDITOR:

The week of Sept. 17-23 has been proclaimed as Constitution Week by our president and our mayor.

How much we take for granted the protection given by our Constitution! What a wonderful document this is to have survived for 191 years. The ideals upon which it is based are reinforced each day by the success of the system to which it gave birth. The excellence of this document deserves our confidence and support.

I sincerely hope that during this week, we in Hertford and Perquimans County, will observe this week by displaying our flags and familiarizing ourselves with our rights, freedoms and duties under the supreme law of the land.

MRS. MARION S. SWINDELL
Constitution Week Chairman
Edenton Tea Party Chapter DAR

CAUSED BY SEASONINGS

Cured meats do not keep their high quality long in the freezer. The reason is that the seasonings added in the curing process speed rancidity.

TOWN AND COUNTY CUT APPROPRIATIONS TO LOCAL LIBRARY: The Perquimans County Library, located in the Women's Clubhouse on Academy Street, will operate on reduced rations this year. The Library Board in routine meeting Tuesday morning considered the fact that the county has reduced its appropriation from $600 to $500 and the town has made its grant smaller by $60—from $180 to $120.

HOEY SAYS TURKEY DAY NOT TO BE CHANGED: Gov. Clyde R. Hoey has politely declined President Roosevelt's kind invitation to join him in changing the official date of Thanksgiving. The governor will shortly issue a proclamation directing that the last Thursday in November be observed as Thanksgiving. Last year he also declined to follow the president in moving the observance up one week. "I feel very strongly about Thanksgiving Day," Gov. Hoey said. "It is not a commercial event or observance. For 75 years there has been an unbroken observance of this day in North Carolina on the last Thursday in November, and I see no sufficient reason for a change now. Accordingly at the proper time I shall designate this traditional day again this year."

SNAKES TRAVEL IN PARIS: Stalk White didn't really care who was parked in his lane the other night, but he did know and is concerned over the fact that snakes usually travel in pairs. (There's little sense in this so far, but you'll get the drift as we go along.) "People park there at all hours," White said, but there's something he wishes to warn them about. Those who parked in Stalk White's lane for a necking bee one night last week, if they left the car, were in almost as much danger as Dick Tracy usually is. The following morning White drove out of his lane and stopped long enough to kill a three and a half foot diamond back rattler where the unidentified car was parked the night before. The snake had five sets of rattles and a button, the Commissioner-elect said. He added, for the benefit of those who park there, that snakes usually travel in pairs. You can be pretty certain for the next several days at least, the dead rattler's mate is somewhere in the neighborhood.

Order home eye test

The odds are one in twenty that your preschool child suffers from a vision problem. However, you can help make sure your child has two good eyes if you'll heed this advice:

Teach youngsters the dangers of sharp objects. Attempt to keep hazardous things out of their reach. Have your child's vision checked professionally prior to entering school and periodically, thereafter.

Finally, give your preschooler a home eye test. This Pharmacy, as a courtesy, will send you Preschooler's Eye Test. You may request it through our Clipping Service, Box 5185, Raleigh, N.C. 27650.
