

News from First Baptist

Sunday school lesson

Sunday school will start at 9:45 a.m. this Sunday at First Baptist Church with the worship service at 11 a.m. Rev. J.H. London, pastor, will be preaching from the text of St. John 6:35 "Christ, the Living Bread from Heaven." The senior choir will present music.

The First Baptist Baby

Contest was recently held. Winners were: first place, Tynishia Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Henderson, Hampton, Va. (sponsored by Mrs. Hattie Welch), $500; second place, Windie Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. James Collins Rodgers of Edenton, $311; third place, Joy Spruill, Mr. and Mrs. Jan Spruill of Hertford, $270. The grand total for all babies was $2,300. Mrs. Annie Mae Rodgers and Rev. London expressed their thanks to members and the Senior Usher Board for the gifts.

Band Day at First Baptist will be held Sunday. Members are reminded to bring an offering.

The Fellowship Union will meet with the Bay Branch A.M.E. Zion Church with First Baptist in charge of the worship service. Rev. London will preach on the subject, "What in Hell Do You Want?" The Senior Choir will sing.

Homecoming to be observed

Homecoming Day will be observed this Sunday, Sept. 17 beginning at noon at Winslow Grove A.M.E. Zion Church in Belvidere.

The morning message will be delivered by Rev. Warren J. Hollan Jr. of Rockville Centre, Long Island, N.Y. He will be accompanied by member of the Saint Matthews A.M.E.

Zion Church, Rockville Centre, N.Y.

The afternoon service will be conducted by Rev. Clarence L. Winslow, a former member of Winslow Grove. He will be accompanied by the congregation of St. Julia A.M.E. Zion Church, Jacksonville, N.C. Dinner will be served.

For Your Information

Dear friends,

If you have experienced the death of someone close to you, your presence at the visitation or funeral of a friend or relative is of special benefit to the bereaved family. The fact that you have come thru your ordeal and can now offer them support in their anguish helps very much to assuage their grief.

Respectfully,
