BOONE

GREENVILLE — Robert L. (Jack) Boone, head football coach at East Carolina University from 1952 through 1961, died Monday in a Greenville Hospital.

Boone, 65, was born in Roanoke Rapids and raised in Portsmouth, Va. where he was an All-Tidewater and all-state running back at Wilson High School in 1937.

He was co-captain of the Wilson football team and captain of the baseball team. He then went on to play football at Elon College. He was named to the All-Carolinas conference team for three years and was named to the Little All-American team. He was elected to the Elon Hall of Fame in 1972 and later named to the East Carolina Sports Hall of Fame.

Boone received his master's degree in education from the University of North Carolina.

In 1948 he moved to Greenville where he coached baseball at East Carolina. He also served as assistant coach of the football team until 1952 when he became head coach; the school was then known as East Carolina Teachers College.

For the last three years Boone has been the specialty teams coach for Ed Emory, who was an all-conference player on Boone's 1959 East Carolina team.

Survivors include his wife, Joyce Black Boone; a daughter Janet Berry of Greenville; three sons, L. Robert (Bobby) Boone and Thomas R. Boone, both of Greenville, and Dr. Jack Lee Boone of Hertford; and six grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 11 a.m. Wednesday in Jarvis Memorial United Methodist Church with Rev. James H. Bailey officiating. Burial followed in Pinewood Memorial Park.

Information was provided by Swindell Funeral Home, Hertford.

PHELPS

FAYETTEVILLE — Rev. Daniel Earl Phelps Sr., 67, died Sunday at Cape Fear Valley Medical Center in Fayetteville. A native of Creswell, he was the widower of Elsie Lee Phelps.

Survivors include four sons, Daniel E. Phelps Jr. of Elizabeth City, Andrew Phelps of Asheboro, David Phelps of Hertford and Bradley Phelps of Fayetteville; five daughters, Mrs. Diane Davis, Mrs.

Faye Mann, Mrs. Estella Harrell and Mrs. Shelley Thorne, all of Fayetteville; two sisters, Mrs. Pauline Deaton and Mrs. Moley Phelps, both of Portsmouth, Va.; 21 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 10:00 a.m. in the chapel of Jernigan-Warren Funeral Home in Fayetteville. Burial was at 4:00 p.m. Tuesday in Highland Park Cemetery in Elizabeth City.

Jernigan-Warren Funeral Home in Fayetteville was in charge of arrangements.
