Cook "finds" mozzarella recipes

While buying the grated mozzarella cheese for homemade pizza several months ago, I discovered some very interesting recipes on the back of the plastic packages.

Unable to decide which container to buy (ie which recipe I was most anxious to try), I bought them both and have discovered some very tasty dishes.

Here they are with my variations.

Antipasto Salad Toss
 1/2-3/4 cup Italian salad dressing
 1 7-oz. can artichoke hearts, sliced in half
 1 cup cherry tomato halves
 1/2 cup ripe olive slices
 1 1/2 qts. torn lettuce (Bibb & Romanie)

1 1/2 cups shredded mozzarella cheese

4 oz. pepperoni slices
 2 hard cooked eggs, sliced
 Marinate artichokes, tomatoes and olives in Italian dressing for several hours or overnight. Drain, reserving dressing.

Combine vegetables, cheese, pepperoni and eggs, mix lightly. Toss with dressing. Serves 4-6. Add hard rolls and butter for a delightful main dish salad.

Italian Sausage Sandwich
 1 cup green pepper strips
 1/2 cup onion rings
 2 Tbsp. butter
 1 cup pizza sauce (or homemade tomato sauce!)

1 lb. mild Italian sausage, quartered and cooked
 1 cup shredded mozzarella cheese
 Two 6-inch French rolls split and toasted

Saute green pepper and onion in margarine. Add pizza sauce and heat thoroughly. For each sandwich, top roll half with sausage sauce mixture and 1/4 cup cheese. Serve immediately. Yield: 4 open faced sandwiches.

(Note: run the sandwiches under the broiler for a minute to melt cheese. Sprinkle with parsley flakes. Serve with a dill pickle wedge. Serves 2-4.

and ruching shadow sleeves trimmed in Cluny and Chantilly lace.

The organza skirt featured an attached chapel length train with a deep lace flounce at the hemline.

Mrs. Suzette Ward of South Mills was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Beth Hollowell of Hertford, sister of the bridegroom; Patricia Sawyer of Elizabeth City; and Sharon Meiggs of Washington, N. C.

The father of the bridegroom was best man. Ushers were Grover Hollowell of Hertford, uncle of the groom; Karl F. Clow of Elizabeth City, brother of the bride; and Gary Sawyer of Camden.

Children in the wedding were Britton Overton, Barrett Overton and Christian Overton, cousins of the bride.

Diane Overton of Shiloh was mistress of the ceremony.

After a wedding trip to Pennsylvania, the couple will live in Winfall.
