The public is cordially invited to attend this informative seminar and screening session.

Extension Service Workshop

Have you ever used a Roman Shade? Though nearly as flat as a roller shade when lowered, a Roman shade draws up into graceful crosswise folds. This accordion effect is accomplished by a simple system of rings and cords and attached to the back of the shade. There will be a Roman Shade workshop, sponsored by the Perquimans County Extension Service, on Wednesday, June 27, at 10:00 a.m. at the County Office Building. If interested please call 426-7697. You must pre-register by Friday, June 22, in order for supplies to be ordered according to your window measurements.

Stone-Pickhardt exchange marriage vows

STONE—PICKHARDT
Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Eugene Stone are at home at 931 Alachua Ave., Tallahassee, following a honeymoon in Destin after their wedding in Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church in Tallahassee, April 28.

The bride is the former Louise Campbell Pickhardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Pickhardt, Jr., of 1116 Magnolia St., New Smyrna Beach. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Stone of Tallahassee.

The Rev. John O'Sullivan officiated at the double-ring ceremony at which the bride was given in marriage by her father. Music included the singing of "On the Wings of Love" and "23rd Psalm" by Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Kruhm of the city.

Organist was Millie Cowen Pandolfi, also of the city.

The bridal gown of white satin was fashioned with fitted bodice and puffed off-the-shoulder sleeves.

The bride's veil fell from a ring of white flowers and she carried a white Bible topped by white orchids.

Her attendants wore dusty rose off-the-shoulder gowns and carried white lace fans with pink and white flowers.

They were her sister, Mary Jones of Tallahassee, matron of honor; Anne Eno of Gainesville, another sister of the bride, Susan Ross of New Smyrna Beach, bridesmaid; and Margie Eno, niece of the bride, junior bridesmaid.

The flower girl and ringbearer were twin niece and nephew of the bride, Katie and Billy Eno.

Best man was Michael Jones of Tallahassee, nephew of the bridegroom, and ushers were

Michael and Patrick Stone, Willis Sims, all of Tallahassee, brothers and brothers-in-law of the bridegroom.

The reception was held out-of-doors at the home of the bridegroom's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Sims.

The pearls worn by the bride were those given by her father to her mother 37 years ago on their wedding day and the Bible she carried was carried by her mother on that day.

There were readings during the ceremony by Joseph Pickhart of New York City and Carlos Stone of Tallahassee, brothers of the bridegroom.

Guests at the wedding included Mrs. J. H. Bagley of Hertford, NC, grandmother of the bride; Mrs. Joan Simonelli and Suzette Simonelli Jones of New Smyrna Beach Janice Sikes of Edgewater.
