Plans underway for Third Annual Indian Summer Festival

The Perquimans County Chamber of Commerce has set into motion the plans for the Third Annual Indian Summer Festival for the early fall.

The Festival, which has become well-known in the area for its appeal to all ages and interests, has been set for Friday and Saturday, September 14 and 15.

Entertainment, craft displays, art, and good food will be in abundance during the two-day event, with a street dance on Saturday night planned for the grand-finale.

The Indian Summer Festival has proven to be a highly successful venture for the Chamber of Commerce, and it is a project that involves not only businesses in the county, but individuals as well.

Volunteers are needed by the Chamber to work on the project to insure its continued success in the county.

Merchants will ban together on Friday for a sidewalk sale, that has proven highly popular with county residents over the past few years, and performers are being sought to provide entertainment on the Courthouse Green in Hertford.

John Christensen, Chairman of the Chamber's Merchant Committee, is heading up the "Big Sales Event" for downtown, and promises a special day with bargains and fun.

Carolyn M. Lane will head up the craft display and sales booths for the festival, and Brenda Hollowell will take charge of the art display and sales booths.

Booths will be available to organizations and individuals that would like to sell food during the festival at the same cost as last year. (10' x 10' $10.00 and 10' x 20' $15.00) Eva Rae Landing picking on Saturday. Groups or individuals that would like to have displays should contact Hal Fleming concerning booths.

Allen and Becky Winslow will head up the street dance committee for Saturday night's entertainment.

A 5K run is set for Saturday, under the direction of Howard Williams. Interested participants are encouraged to start training early to be in good shape by September.

The coke wagons will be set up and maintained by Larry Chappell, and Kay Tice will have plenty of balloons on sale for the children during the two-day festival.

Two days filled with fun and festivities are planned, but volunteers are needed to insure the week-ends success. If you are interested in contributing time or ideas to the Indian Summer Festival contact Shirley Perry or Mary Harrell at the Chamber of Commerce Office, 426-5657.

will take charge of the food section.

Historical displays will once again appear in the storefronts under the direction of Lizzie Harrell.

Anyone having items of historical interest that they would like to share with the community should contact Mrs. Harrell.

Pete Riddick will be heading up the cooking team for a fish fry on Friday night, and Paul Smith will head up the cooks for a pig-

ASCS releases provisions for 1985 wheat program

According to Thomas L. Riddick, County Executive Director, Secretary of Agriculture John R. Block has announced provisions of the 1985 wheat program, including a 20 percent acreage reduction and a 10 percent paid land diversion.

Signup for the program will be October 15 through March 1. The cash land diversion payment will be $2.70 per bushel with 50 percent available at signup. The program also includes a $3.30 per bushel national average loan rate and a $4.38 per bushel target price.

To be eligible for program benefits, producers must limit 1985 wheat acreage to no more than 70 percent of the farm's wheat base. They must also dedicate a certain amount of their eligible cropland to an acreage conservation reserve. The amount to be placed in this reserve must be equal to at least 42.86 percent of the farm's 1985 planted wheat acreage.

Land designated for an acreage conservation reserve must have been devoted to a row crop or small grains in two of the last three years except for a summer fallow farm. The summer fallow rules will be the same as those in effect for the 1984 programs. Those rules provide that the acreage must have been devoted to row crops or small grains in one of the last two crop years.

Haying will not be permitted on acreage conservation reserve land. However, the acreage may be grazed except during the six principal growing months as designated by ASCS officials. The six principal growing months as designed in Perquimans County are April through September. Block also approved a standby measure authorizing, in the event of a natural disaster, implementation of emergency haying and grazing privileges. Approval of the emergency privileges would be made as needed on a county-by-county basis.

Offsetting and cross compliance will not apply to the 1985 wheat program.

USDA intends to review the size of the farmer-owned reserve before regular price support loans for the 1985 crop reach maturity. At that time, it will be determined whether entry into the reserve will be permitted.

Programs contracts signed by participants will be binding and will provide for liquidated damages for failure to comply with program requirements.

Winslow to preside at Friends Meeting

From July 12 to 18 representatives of well over half of the Friends (Quakers) in the world will come together from around the globe to the campus of Chapman College in Orange, California, for the Triennial sessions of Friends United Meeting. Friends United Meeting (FUM) is a fellowship of 15 Friends Yearly Meetings (annual conferences) from various parts of the world who have joined together to more effectively do their part in advancing the Kingdom of God.

In the last three years many new ministries have been launched. A new mission field has been opened in Uganda. Vital work is being done in the refugee camps of the arid Turkana region of northwest Kenya to establish basic educational programs and new churches. A holistic program of service and spiritual outreach has been carried out in the densely populated Cabrini-Green inner-city district of Chicago, and a new congregation is flourishing there. A basic youth services ministry has been set up known as Quaker Volunteer Witness.

Significant new stewardship and discipleship programs are getting under way.

One of the primary business items to come before the body will be a proposal to recognize two new Yearly Meetings in the rapidly growing mission area of East Africa. Another will be a plan to streamline FUM structure and staff to reflect a more truly global organization.

Among the speakers that the conference will hear will be William Rogers, President of Guilford College in Greensboro, N. C.; John Perkins, founder of Voice of Calvary Ministries; and Norval Hadley of World Vision International. California Yearly Meeting is the host for the gathering. On Sunday morning, July 15, the hundreds of participants will visit and worship in many of the Friends churches throughout southern California.

The Presiding Clerk for the sessions will be Clifford Winslow of the Up River Friends Meeting in Perquimans County of northeastern North Carolina. Winslow who farms in the Belvidere area and has headed the North Carolina School Board Association, has led Friends United Meeting for the last three years. Prior to assuming the office of Clerk of Friends United Meeting, he was Presiding Clerk of North Carolina Yearly Meeting of Friends.

North Carolina Yearly Meeting of Friends is the largest body of Friends on the North American continent and is a leader in the work and witness of Friends United Meeting. Billy M. Britt, General Superintendent of North Carolina Yearly Meeting, based in Greensboro, N. C., is the Clerk of Friends United Meeting's Personnel Committee and a representative to its General Board. Other representatives to the General Board are Sarah Pate Wilson of Winston-Salem, current Presiding Clerk of North Carolina Yearly Meeting; and David Robinson, pastor of the Centre Friends Meeting in the Greensboro area. Shelby Shore of Yadkinville, N. C., is the Clerk of Friends United Meeting's Meeting Ministries Commission which plans and oversees programs to build up local congregations.

Other North Carolinians who have served as Presiding Clerks of Friends United are J. Binford Farlow of Greensboro, Byron Haworth of High Point and Algie L. Newlin of Guilford College.

Friends were the first bearers of the Christian Gospel to North Carolina, and it is very fitting that North Carolina Friends should offer such significant leadership to the world-wide work and witness of Friends today.

Volunteer Day Slated

Realizing that volunteers are a valuable asset to the county, the Perquimans County Jaycees have set aside a special day to pay tribute to those individuals and groups that have given so generously of their time and talents.

"Volunteer day" will be held on Saturday, July 21, at Missing Mill Park.

Activities will begin at 12:00 noon in the park with the day ending with a street dance from 8:00 p.m. until 12:00 midnight, with music by the popular band, Magic.

All local organizations are encouraged to participate during "Volunteer Day." Interested persons or groups should contact Greg Biggs at 426-5864 (after 6 p.m.)
