Call the Center now and sign up for the following classes: Basket Weaving, Fabric Painting/Stenciling, Exercise Class, and State Fair Trip.

The bus will leave the Senior Center at 6:30 a.m. on Thursday, October 18 for the State Fair. We will stop in Williamston for breakfast and arrive at the fair around 10:00 a.m. We will leave the fair at 4:00 p.m. and make a stop in Wilson at Parker's Restaurant for dinner.

The bus will arrive back in town around 9:00 p.m. The cost is $10.00 per person, which includes the fair transportation and your ticket to the fair. (Senior Citizens 65 years of age or older are admitted free in the fair.) All meals are on your own. Call the Center now to register.

Festival of Skills to offer wide variety

Only a few traces of summer remain. The wild geese and mallards will soon be arriving, but first comes "The Festival of Skills" with creative, inexpensive and exciting gifts and accessories. Whatever the shoppers or browsers are looking for, they should be able to find it on Saturday, October 6, at the Perquimans County High School Gymnasium located behind the Perquimans High School on Business 17 in Hertford.

This year, there will be drawings for door prizes on the hour which means lucky winners will carry home special handmade items donated by the talented craftsmen.

Patricia Benton has been busy making Cabbage Patch Doll clothes. Why not dress that 1983 Cabbage Patch Baby in a new outfit for the Holiday Season and its first birthday? Visit Patricia for an excellent selection of doll clothes.

Maude Ellis will have a booth of miscellaneous crafts including baked goods and art. Maude is a lady of many talents and this year she will be at The Festival of Skills sharing them with you.

Newcomers will be a brother and sister team, originally from Perquimans County, Faye Long Ward from Goldsboro, N. C. and Claude and Ruby Long from Greenville, N. C. Faye's speciality will be these elegant handcut and stenciled lampshades and ribbon crafts. Claude and Ruby will feature wood items, animals, shelves, towel racks and small lamps. Come welcome these Perquimans County natives.

More stenciling, fabric painting, and quilting will be found in Trudy Outland's booth. Trudy is from Sunbury and a newcomer to The Festival of Skills.

We'll have Ruby Stanley returning with her great selection of crocheted sweaters, vests, hats, and pocket books. You'll be ready for cold weather after a purchase from Ruby!

There'll be surprises along the way. Emily Harrell will probably have lingerie and Lynn Hilborn, baskets in the Burgess Extension Homemakers Booth. And there'll be baked goods for sale as you visit Hunter's Fork Ladies Auxiliary, Snug Harbor Community Church, and Snug Harbor Civic League Booths.

Furniture and accessories by Darlene Wiley of Hobbsville will add variety and interest to the displays of pillows and Christmas Ornaments by Piccola Chappell.

Original crocheted Christmas by Nancy Jo Townsend would like a must as well as her handcrafted lollipops.

Mr. Charles Poole, Public Relations Officer of Elizabeth

City, will have an educational exhibit of the National Association of Retired Federal Employees. Stop by and visit with Mr. Poole.

The 1984 Festival of Skills sponsored by Perquimans County Extension Homemakers offers a great variety of arts and crafts. Plan to attend and see for yourself the many talented people who will be in Hertford on Saturday, October 6 from 10:00 a.m. until 7:00 p.m. Admission: $1.00 for adults and $.50 for students.

Twenty-seven booths are ready for the Big Day! A few spaces are available. If anyone is interested call 426-7697.

Only a few participants have been mentioned in this news article.
