Albemarle EMC, along with 26 other Electric Cooperatives in North Carolina, have been promoting the North Carolina Electric Membership Corporation statewide load management program for the past six months. According to local sources, this load management system is progressing on schedule. As of September 15, there have been 224 switches installed by EMC.

The local EMC covers portions of five counties, Chowan, Perquimans, Pasquotank, Currituck, Camden, and serves better than 6,300 member consumers.

County EMTs honored at breakfast

Emergency Medical Technicians of Perquimans County were guests of Chowan Hospital, Inc. last Wednesday at a special breakfast honoring them during Emergency Medicine Week. The week of September 16-22 was designated by Governor Jim Hunt as a special week to encourage the public to learn more about the emergency medical resources in the community. Each year, over 80 million Americans turn to emergency departments for medical care. Therefore, Chowan Hospital encourages all individuals to know their area's emergency telephone number and the directions needed for a Rescue Squad Unit to locate their home.

Chowan Hospital's emergency department is equipped with modern medical equipment and is open 24 hours a day.
