BPW to sponsor fashion show

The Hertford Business and Professional Women's Club will kick off this year's activities with a benefit fashion show scheduled for October 13 at 7:30 p.m. at the Hertford Grammar School.

Sherie Woodell will serve as the club's president this year. The other '84-'85 officers are Janice Cole, vice-president; Helen Felton, secretary; and Bonnie White, treasurer.

The Hertford BPW Club is a charter member of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Club. Their objective is to address and service the needs of the working women in our community. They are also active in community projects.

Traditionally, the Hertford BPW Club has been responsible for sponsoring a candy striping class for the high school, a candidates' night in election years, a young careerist competition and awarding scholarships to two local students.

The Club is also responsible for the Christmas tree on the courthouse lawn.

In March, the Hertford BPW Club will host the district meeting.

The "Harvest of Fashions" seen at the fashion show will be provided by the Albemarle area merchants and worn by local models. Ann Taylor, a fashion expert of national fame will be the commentator.

Tickets are $2.50 and can be obtained by calling 426-8305 or 426-5206.

Outstanding volunteers from Perquimans County were honored at the Governor's Statewide Volunteer Awards Ceremony September 25 in Williamston.

Speaking of the award recipients past and present, Governor Hunt stated, "Carolyn and I have been deeply moved as hundreds of people have stepped forward to receive their very well-deserved volunteer awards, just as you will do. We are confident that you will keep North Carolina's volunteer tradition strong and vibrant."

Volunteer; Sandra Bennett, One-On-One Volunteer; Annice Peckham and Lloyd E. Riddick, accepting for Perquimans County Rescue Squad and Fire Departments in the Community Volunteer Organization category; and Reverend William Martin, accepting for Perquimans County Service Center Bible Study Group, in the Church/Religious Volunteer Group category.

Not pictured was Swindell Funeral Home, Business/Industry Volunteer Involvement category award recipient.

Correction

In last week's edition of The Perquimans Weekly the front page story on the 17th Century Courts Commemoration did not give a credit line to the story's author, Mrs. Lucille Winslow. Mrs. Winslow is a member of the state liaison committee for the 400th celebration. We regret the omission.

Remember you are all the people who can be fooled some of the time.
