BANKS

Spec. 4 Reginald L. Banks, son of Otis L. Banks of 111 S. Lexington Ave., Brooklyn, N.Y., and Hazel C. Banks of Rural Route 4, Elizabeth City, N.C., have arrived for duty with the 4th Battalion, 325th Infantry Regiment, Fort Bragg, N.C.

The move was made as part of the U.S. Army's Cohesion Operational Readiness and Training (COHORT) System.

COHORT was designed to enhance mission effectiveness and strengthen unit cohesion and esprit de corps by providing soldiers the opportunity for long-term identification with their units.

His wife, Tracie, is the daughter of Lenora Moore of Hertford, N.C.

ASKEW

Pvt. 1st Class Tammy Askew, daughter of William H. Askew of Rural Route 1 and Margaret E. Moore of 121 Wynne Fork Court, both of Hertford, N.C. has completed basic training at Fort McClellan, Ala.

During the training, students received instruction in drill and ceremonies, weapons, map reading, tactics, military courtesy, military justice, first aid, and Army history and traditions.

Family reunion held

The Nixon Hollowell Family had a reunion, Sunday, August 3, for the ninth consecutive year in the Great Hope Baptist Church Fellowship Hall.

The Rev. Edgar Bunch, asked the blowing. A covered dish luncheon was enjoyed by all and several pictures were taken.

Thirty-two were present, including the Minister and his wife.

Class offered in self defense

Due to recent burglaries in the Winfall area, the Winfall Police Department is organizing a class for ladies covering self defense, firearms training, and home security.

The course will be conducted by local law enforcement officers, and representatives from the department of crime prevention and public safety. The course is open to all ladies in the county. All interested in participating in the program may call and leave their name with the Winfall Police department at 426-5015. Time and place of class are yet to be determined.
