One Stop Auto holds customer appreciation day

Sunday "Missing Mill Park" came alive with the sights and sounds of a "Fun Day in the Park" as One Stop Auto Parts of Hertford honored their customers with Customer Appreciation Day.

The day featured a variety of events including games for kids and adults, competitive events for local fire depts., music, and more. A special guest appearance was made by Elvira and Grandma and the girls.

Hertford Fire Dept. won the fire-mans contests, which featured wa-ter balloon tossing, bear hauling, and racing with clown shoes and women's undergarments on and more.

The crowd roared for their favor-ite dept., and the Hertford Dept. was awarded $100.00 for winning the competition.

In addition to all the games and entertainment, representatives from Gates, a manufacturer of belts and hoses, Perfect Circle, a manufacturer of engine kits and supplies, and Car Quest were also on hand to discuss their products and services which are available at One Stop Auto Parts. The Car Quest representative was demon-strating Tech-Net Services, avail-able also at One Stop Auto.

In addition to the representatives from Gates, Perfect Circle and Car Quest, Interstate Tire was also represented on Sunday with a display.

The Perquimans County Jaycees operated a concession stand

Sunday during One Stop Auto Parts customer appreciation day everyone got in the act. Above and left are fireman are seen as they prepare for the firemen's contest. The winner of the events was Hertford Fire Dept. led by Larry Chappell and Edgar Roberson. Also on Sunday there was a special appear-ance of "Grandma and the girls".

Sunday was enjoyed by ev-eryone.
