THURSDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1941 The Objectives of The Greensboro Negro Business League

The primary aims of this organzation are: (1) to arouse a general nterest in Negro affairs among Ne-groes themselves, (2) to emphasize he needs of Negroes as an important segment of the population through in-er-racial understanding, (3) to work to this end that these needs be more adequately supplied; (3) to promote Negro enterprises; (5) to co-operate with all existing civic, social, politi-cal, governmental agencies which are in any way responsible for the indus trial, educational, social, recreational, moral, political, economic, and religious development of the Negro Green sboro and its environs; (6) to make Greensboro a better place in which to live.

We hope to accomplish these aims (1) by promoting an enlightened un-derstanding of the many problems which confront Negroes as a minority group; (2) by encouraging co-operation and unity of thought and action in Negro affairs; (3) by more active participation in the civic and political affairs of Greensboro and the state of North Carolina (4) by developing a more active type of Negro leadership to lead the growing group of Negroes who are beginning to think of themselvès as citizens of Greensboro, North Carolina, and the United States of America and, as ac-tive participants in the rights and the duties and the obligations of citi zenship.

One of our first efforts in the ac complishment of our aims and objectives is to inaugurate a drive for a membership of 200 members-a repre sentative group to be drawn from every social and economic group within the race-a group of Negro men and women from every walk of life. This membership will form a nucleu about which we hope to weld together an active effective civic organiza-tion capable of making itself felt in Negro affairs.

Choir To Sing

One of the major feature of the oming dedication week-end it Benett College will be the singir of the Bennett College Choir which a won considerable acclaim under to leadership of Dr. R. Nathaniel Dt, who ne head of the music depriment at Bennett four years ago. Ie has written two musical pieces esecially for the ocacsion.

World-renowned as a plant, COT poser and conductor, Dr. Dit has molded the Bennett College Goir of 42 female volces into a disactive musical group which is winny increasing recognition each yes from various parts of the country I nder his tutelage, its melodious h-nony in both the bass and treble clefs h already received much faorable comment.

Particularly outstanding a the choir has been Dr. Dett's devepment of voices well able to sustai notes far down below the usual regter for vomen's voices, thus makingit possible to sing choral works hitirto regarded as only for mixed churse
